Gangsters Planned To Snatch Joe; Ask Roxborough $100,000

NEW YORK CITY, April 2.—A plot by gangsters to kidnap Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis and hold him for $100,000 ransom, to be paid by John Roxborough, co-manager of the Brown Bomber, was foiled, it was disclosed in testimony by a self-declared killer here last week. The district attorney's office and FBI agents are reported to have worked on the case. Louis Balner, on the stand in connection with the ten-year-old murder of an alleged gambler, said that he had been questioned about the Louis kidnapping plot and that he was the "trigger man" in the murder case.

First Lady of Flight Fears Indifference Of CAA, Army Chiefs

By A Staff Correspondent

The First Lady in aviation, in circles involving the activities of Negro people, Miss Willa B. Brown was at home on a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Eric (Hallie Mae) Brown 1501 Yandes street, last week. Miss Brown, a veteran in her field of endeavor is a supervisor and instructor in aviation at the famous Coffey School of Aeronautics at Chicago. She is also on a national tour and discussed with the press and leaders of local civic groups and other organizations plans to preserve this school now doomed to be closed. Established, owned and operated by Negro people the school has been affiliated with the Civil Aeronautics Administration in the training of enlisted reserves for the air corps since 1940. The Coffey school was one of the first in its class to be approved for this program along with 300 colleges or universities over the country. The school has gained wide reputation as the cradle of aviation training for Negro people. The CAA under recent plans has approved 50 schools for a new army air cadet training program. But this new program does not include the Coffey

NYA HELPS WAR, OPENS JOB DOORS SAYS BETHUNE

NYA training not only is helping to win the war but is meeting the demand of industry, critically short of skilled workers, in every section of the country. Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, national director of NYA Affairs division, told 1800 persons at Mt. Zion Baptist church Wednesday night. NYA training has been of tremendous benefit to young people in helping them find a way to make a great contribution to the war effort through industrial production and the job qualifications and ability of the young persons trained by NYA have opened new doors. Dr. Bethune, Mary Stuart Anderson, regional director, Russell DeBow, regional assistant, F. B. Ransom, master of ceremonies, and Priscilla Dean Lewis, NAACP president paid tribute to Wm. Vernon Shields, manager of the Keystone NYA War production Training center, for his unceasing efforts to make the training available to all persons, 16-25 years, married or single, in order that they may serve in vital war industries. Certificates were presented 27 youths who have completed recent training for war production work, an award was made to the 23rd youth which Keystone NYA has trained and placed in local war work and tribute was paid to the several hundred others who are employed in various points throughout the nation in vital industries, as well as to those who work in non-essential jobs but who are

SPECIAL BUSES, BANNED; SEC'Y SAYS GAME DEAD

CHICAGO, April 2.—What apparently is the death knell of Negro baseball for the duration, was sounded here Monday as a long-awaited message from J. B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation, revealed that special bus transportation will not be available for clubs in the Negro National and Negro American leagues this summer. Dr. J. B. Martin, American circuit president, received the message. Various club owners and friends of the game, who saw the sport as a definite bolster of morale among colored persons, have spent much time recently trying to win a satisfactory arrangement in this matter and it was earnestly hoped by the country at large that a

GEORGE L. HAYES NAMED WINNER OF CABLE AWARD

Community service of the greatest good for the greatest number, resulted in the selection of George L. Hayes, educator and principal of John Hope School 26 as winner of the fifth annual Cable award, a committee of the Federation of Associated clubs, sponsor of the medal donated by Dr. Theodore Cable in memory of his father, George W. Cable, announced Tuesday.

Mrs. Crystal Hyrd Fausett of Washington, who is district representative of the Office of Civilian Defense, will make the presentation during ceremonies at Mount Zion Baptist church 12th and Missouri streets, at 8 o'clock Sunday night.

Mr. Hayes, for many years one of the quiet and earnest workers of the city and whose record indicates that he felt he owed civic participation and support of worthy while programs to himself and his community—is widely known in educational fields as well.

The committee of fifteen persons electing the winner of the award noted among other things the work Mr. Hayes has done in civilian defense, the Men's Union Bible Class, activities in the USO and as a long-time worker in the Boy Scout program. Previous winners include Mrs. Mary Southern, S. W. James, Mrs. Alice Gartin and William D. Brooks.

S. W. James is president of the Federation.

Hurricane Hank and Dixie Cyclone Meet Fri. Night in Big Blow-for-Blow

HENRY ARMSTRONG

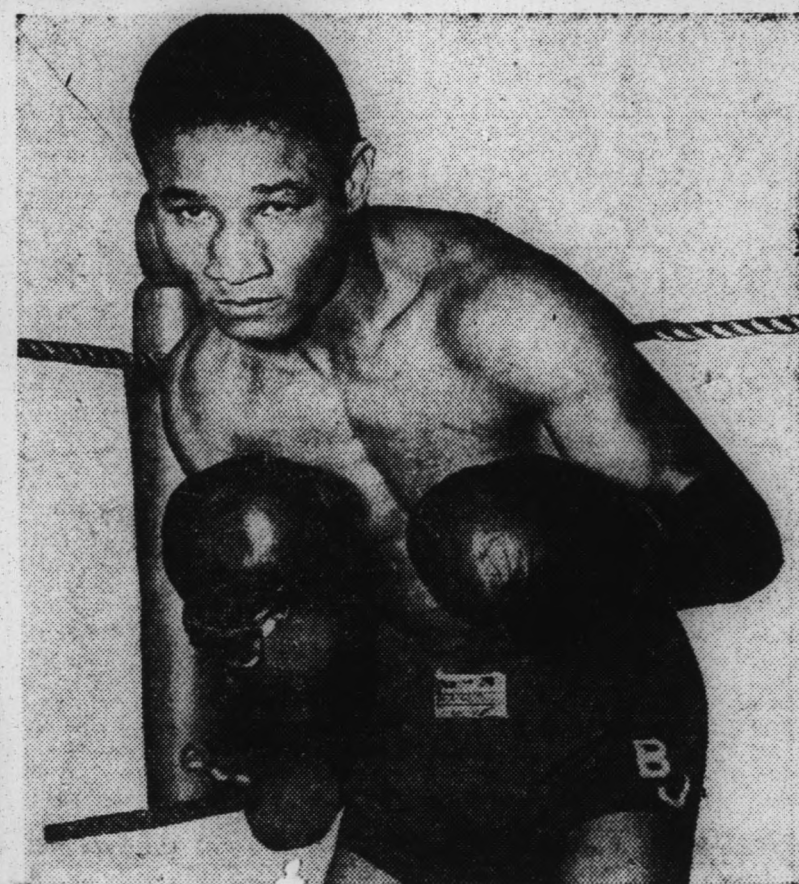

NEW YORK CITY, April 2.—The last hurdle in the bout between Beau Jack, the Southern Cyclone, and Henry Armstrong, the western whirlwind, currently blowing up a gale along the comeback trail at a frightening rate, was cleared here Tuesday as an eye specialist declared that the vision of both men is satisfactory.

Many fight fans were fearful that Armstrong, who retired because of eye trouble after losing the last of his three titles, might not make the grade but a whoop heard in the farthest reaches of fight circles was let out as the word was passed that these two titans are really going to swing out Friday night April 2 at Madison Square Garden.

He quit college in his third year to join the Navy. He lost his left hand at Guadalcanal last December. He spent four months at the Long Beach Naval Hospital. Today, with a distinguished service bar and an honorable discharge, he will start life anew as a draftsman at the California Shipbuilding Corporation.

He is Quincy Tullman, strapping 21-year-old Negro, who saw more than four months action in the Solomons before a machine gun blast from a low-flying Jap plane tore off his left hand, shattering several ribs and missed his heart by "an inch or two."

Unafraid of Jap zeros, young Tullman disclosed yesterday that he hasn't told his wife, his aged mother or any relatives of his wounds. "I just don't want them to worry, but now, with a fine job

Gary Launches Radio Program

GARY, April 2.—Through the interest and enterprise of Rev. B. T. Neal, pastor of Delaney Methodist church and superintendent of Stewart House community center, broadcast facilities have been placed at the center for airing a new program to be known as The Voice of the Negro. This step marks one of the high points in Gary history.

KNOX TO SPEAK AT BOND RALLY HERE APRIL 9

As Indiana opened the war bond campaign more than a year ago with the late Carole Lombard in the nation's first rally, so the state will again lead the way in the second war loan drive with a monster program at Cagle Tabernacle in which Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox will be the principal speaker and the complete cast of the Great Lakes Naval Training station coast-to-coast show, "Meet Your Navy", will appear.

A company of 151 blue jackets—55-piece band, 60-voice choir and 36 artists, including the famous Lt. Commander Eddie Peabody and his band—will be on the program, a half-hour of which will be broadcast over the national (Blue network) hook-up.

Later, Secretary Knox will be on the air coast-to-coast for a half-hour. The big free rally, at which no war bonds will be sold, will be held Friday evening, April 9, starting at 7:30, with doors of the Tabernacle to be closed at 7:15 in order to prepare for the "Meet Your Navy" broadcast, it was announced today by Eugene C. Pulliam, state executive chairman of the Indiana war finance committee, which is directing the state-wide drive for

NEGRO NOW 50 PER CENT OF WPA ROLLS

WASHINGTON, April 2. (AP)—Negroes are now 50 per cent of the WPA rolls, it was learned this week. Currently there are approximately 145,000 still on work relief throughout the nation. The Puerto Rican roster lists 40,000. The high percentage of Negroes is interpreted as additional evidence of the failure of private industry, despite the labor shortage, to take on available Negro workers.

FEDERAL WARDEN REPORTS ON LOCAL MAN

Safety Board Told Officers Terrorized Eastside Establishment

Allegedly brutal tactics administered to several eastside residents last Saturday afternoon by a uniformed police sergeant and two members of his squad met with bitter verbal opposition from civic and political leaders this week.

Clarence Suggs active in east-side politics, appeared before Inspector Donald Tooley, and deputy Inspector Edward Rouls, Monday afternoon and protested against the way Sergeant George Liese, and Patrolmen Ray Peak and Lawrence Smith had kicked and beaten seven or eight men found drinking in the Douglas Tavern at 25th street and Martindale avenue.

Suggs said he saw the three policemen come in the tavern in a seemingly drunken condition and knock customer's whiskey off the table then drive several of them outside and after lining them up against the window of the tavern with their hands over

SWEARS CAR 31 STORY IS FALSE; FEARED 'HEAT'

Two policemen were suspended this week by high police officials pending a police board hearing and two others were reprimanded for their actions.

Patrolmen Spurgeon Davenport and Roy E. Kennedy, both assigned together in car 31, were indefinitely suspended by Inspector Donald Tooley Tuesday afternoon when they came off duty. Tooley said that he had received signed statements from several bootleg cab drivers in which they stated that Davenport and Kennedy had been "shaking them down."

The statements charged that money was left in envelopes at a

To Gen. Robert H. Tyndall, Mayor of Indianapolis; The Board of Public Safety; Chief of Police, Clifford F. Becker; The Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce; Indianapolis Federation of Community Civic Clubs, Inc.; The Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., and all good citizens of our "No Mean City."

GREETINGS:

We are noting herein, with genuine anxiety, details of an unfortunate and damaging incident, involving reports of conduct unbecoming of policemen; and by recurrence likely a potential menace to the safety, well-being and common or connate interests in civic amity of all good citizens.

(NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF MANY AVAILABLE)

Plain citizens, not dissimilar to others of likely parallel footing against contingent fate, charge or report that:

"Sometime after 1:00 p. m., and before 3:00 p. m. on Saturday March 27th that three members of The Indianapolis Police Department, riding in Police Department automobile number 44, visited the tavern at Twenty-fifth street and Martindale avenue, in a drunken condition and were abusive unduly of the people in the tavern, by action and word of mouth without just cause."

"No trouble, or disturbance of any kind had taken place in the tavern until the policemen visited the place. Many people in the place were engaged in the not unlawful procedure of drinking alcoholic beverages."

"Policemen knocked over the contents of glasses or bottles on tables, to the tables or onto the floor. People in the place were searched and in two or more instances the things in their pockets were thrown on the floor or not returned to the owners."

"Some of the people in the place were ordered out to the sidewalk and told to stand facing the wall with their hands held upward. These persons were searched and hit or slapped, and abused by word of mouth without due cause or justification."

"After searching or pushing the people around on the sidewalk of the tavern, the police left as a large crowd gathered on the scene. They displayed themselves in a manner, reported directly by 35 or 40 people among the likely 200 persons on the scene as a drunken condition. The officers later returned and found Chief Becker on the scene, in response to 5 or 6 reported telephone calls to the department, and the affair was ended as they left all together."

Many people reported seeing various details of the incident, adding to these statements, without inquiries or suggestions. Several individuals implied readily, the incident might have ended in a mass assault upon the policemen. The possible reaches of such an incident, if interpreted in terms of a so-called riot might prove unduly menacing to the lives and fortunes of vast numbers of the four-hundred thousand of peoples of our city. Guardians of law and order are the last persons expected to be charged with visiting a major calamity upon the people, whom they are sworn to serve and protect. Again a calamity occurring out of such developments would be a near unerasable blight upon the renowned general civic decorum of our community. In closing, let us pledge ourselves by action that it will not happen here.

Respectfully,

important program of the civilian front.

The gardening program is three years old at John Hope school and last year the eastside members held one of the largest and finest exhibits of their produce seen in the city. The program this year is expected to be the biggest and best in every way and plans are being made which will put into use every piece of available ground in that section. Reports received at the school show that many persons already have located sites and, in many instances, some work has been done on the garden plots. New as well as old garden plots will be included in the school plan.

fey school. Otherwise no program of aviation training, except the CAA training under supervision of the War Department and regularly established army programs may exist in war times.

One deducts from talking with Miss Brown that there is a more or less concerted plan to divert all aviation training of Negro trainees under the war program to Tuskegee. Again there is likely a planned movement to stagnate Negro training or activities in aviation. Miss Brown states, "twelve schools at one time were training Negro pupils under the war time CAA program. In recent months the number was cut to 2 or 3 and today there are Tuskegee and the Coffey school. Tomorrow, Tuskegee alone may exist, as our school is presently doomed."

The Coffey school at Harlem Airport has been training enlisted reserves for the army air corps. Enlistments for the air corps reserves were halted in December of last year. After the training of all reserves enlisted before December of last year is completed, the Coffey school will no longer be included in the training program. The school's equipment worth thousands of dollars will be seized likely by the U. S. government.

Supported by various organizations of Chicago, the appeals to the War Department to include the school in the new air cadet training program have been met with the reply that the War Department can not tell the CAA what to do; while the CAA officials say they cannot approve the Coffey school without the sanction of the War Department. Among the supporters of the plan to continue the school are Gov. Dwight Green of Illinois, Lieut. Gov. Hugh W. Cross, Senator C. Wayland Brooks of Illinois, Congressman William Dawson of Illinois and Congressman Louis Ludlow of Indiana. Miss Brown says, "Congressman Ludlow has been most considerate in his efforts at helping maintain the school as a part of air cadet training program."

Miss Brown visited Washington recently and conferred with officials of both the War Department and the CAA. She told officials that the school would make whatever expansions that were necessary to serve the new program. The War Department admitted that the school is now doing a more difficult job than would be required under the new program, but made no move to include the Coffey school in the new program.

She was told by John P. Morris and R. McLean of the CAA that the school could not be included in the army air cadet training program without approval of the War Department. Brig. Gen. Luther S. Smith stated that the War Department would not interfere with whatever plans Stewart and Morris worked out. Miss Brown says, "only public support and an appeal or pressure by people over the entire nation on the War Department and Congress will save the cradle of aviation training for Negro people. The Negro people of the nation must join the drive to change the attitude of the army brass hats, who want to junk the entire program of training Negro people in aviation."

BECKWITH HOME FRONT

Frank R. Beckwith, chairman of the Legislative and Civic Affairs Committee of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., was the speaker on the "Home Front" program presented by the Information Service of the American Bar Association over radio station WFBM last Thursday. He extolled the due process clause of the constitution of the United States and referred to it as the common denominator of all Americans. He said that the Negro lawyer, in protecting the constitutional rights of humble citizens with reference to small matters, does so knowing that, in so doing, he is underwriting the perpetuity of a great country and is preserving the blessings of human liberty for all mankind. Continuing, he said, "The task of the Negro lawyer is a task requiring one—that of presenting in the courts and elsewhere the unsolved problems of a weak, yet loyal, minority." The speaker was introduced by Walter Meyers, Jr., chairman of the Committee on Public Information Service of the American Bar Association.

QUARLES CASE
DISMISSED

Arthur Quarles, 40, president of the T. L. W. Democratic club, was the guinea pig in a test case for a liquor law violation this week and won out.

Quarles and 39 other persons were arrested at the club home several weeks ago by the squad of police and charged with selling intoxicating beverages to non-members.

In court attorney Henry J. Richardson, defense counsel, had the cases deferred and continued several times until he could prepare a suitable argument for his client. Later Richardson contended that there was no law in the entire statute that covered this particular phase of the offense for which Quarles and his followers were charged.

Richardson filed briefs setting out that men should be released because they had no grounds for making the arrests. Judge John L. Niblack in finding them not guilty agreed with Richardson and said no law covered the case.

Police had signed 8 affidavits against the men charging that the non-members bought illegally, and they violated the 1935 beverages act. Quarles and Castine Griffin, secretary treasurer, were charged with the 1935 beverages act and illegal selling. Richardson submitted 160 page motion to quash all the affidavits and it was upheld by Niblack. Niblack said that this was the first time a question like this had arisen and he thought that it would have far-reaching effect on future cases of this type throughout the city. If they want to convict people for selling to non-members they must make a law because as far as I am concerned you can sell to anybody you want to," Niblack said.

They went in the station, Jackson said, and began to make a lot of noise threatening to lock everybody up but didn't arrest anybody. Then they went back to the tavern. When Samuel Dorfman, 55 years old, 2355 North Alabama street, owner of the tavern came in, Dorfman said, he asked them not to treat the colored people so rough as they weren't doing anything but they became abusive to him and said "We'll be back and lock you up."

Dorfman said that the police

SAFETY BOARD

their head searched them then kicked them. Suggs said that he had difficulty in keeping the crowd of almost 500 which had gathered around from ganging the police and causing a riot.

"I Was Afraid," Dorfman

A call was put to police headquarters and Chief Becker and Roush hurried to the scene to investigate but when they arrived Lieke and his men had gone. White the chief and his assistant were there the squad returned but before they could do more damage the chief ordered them to follow him to headquarters.

Several calls came into the Recorder office immediately following the trouble and three representatives went to investigate. They interviewed several of the victims who gave stories which corresponded. Theodore Hood, 48 years old, 1120 Cornell avenue, said that the two officers who were seemingly drunk, came in the tavern and made him stand up, then after searching him made him leave the tavern. After getting outdoors the officers kicked him and made him leave.

George Hill, 21 years old, 2352 Yandes street, said he was going west on 25th street when the police had other men lined up on the street and as he passed one of them called him and asked his name. "He kicked me and searched me," Hill said, "and when I left he told me that if I ran he would shoot me." "I don't know his name but he was in car 44 and I would know him if I saw him again," Hill declared.

Lenton J. Echols, 21 years old, 2653 Yandes street, said he was sitting at a table with three ladies, Beatrice Johnson, Cleo Knox, and another lady whose first name is Flozine when the officers came in. They poured over whiskey out and poured part of it in some glasses, some on the table then put the bottle in the sink.

"Police Were Wrong," Roush
 David Jackson, 57 years old, 812 W. Michigan street, said that he was ordered to leave the tavern by the police and as he started out the door one of them hit him on the side of the head several times without provocation.

Robert Clark, 1320 East 23rd street, said he was in the tavern when the police came in and in his opinion they were drunk. John Diggs, 42 years old, 2927 Martindale avenue, said that he was in the tavern with some ladies when the officers came in and searched him demanding that everybody there show them their registration cards.

Inspector Tooley said that the officers were questioned by him but were not drunk. Suggs said that he never saw Sergeant Lieke do any beating or kicking but he refused to make his men quit and was just as gully, in this respect, as they. Roush said that there was no doubt in his mind that the police were wrong in their actions. Jackson said that the police were so drunk that when they got in their car they backed up across the street to a filling station and ran into several cans smashing them.

They went in the station, Jackson said, and began to make a lot of noise threatening to lock everybody up but didn't arrest anybody. Then they went back to the tavern. When Samuel Dorfman, 55 years old, 2355 North Alabama street, owner of the tavern came in, Dorfman said, he asked them not to treat the colored people so rough as they weren't doing anything but they became abusive to him and said "We'll be back and lock you up."

Dorfman said that the police

GUINEA TROOPS
WANT COLORED
NEWSPAPERS

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, April 2. (ANP)—Chief wish of Negro soldiers in the South Pacific theatre of war—outside of wanting to defeat the enemy and go back home—is enough. Negro newspapers to read to find out what's cooking back on South Parkway, Lenox avenue, Beale street, Auburn avenue and their equivalents.

The special service section of the army is doing a good job of keeping high the morale of colored soldiers, with one Negro officer, Lt. Edward Lowe, assigned here. But the crying need is for newspapers from home. Recently one copy of the Baltimore Afro-American was received here and, conservatively speaking, it passed thru more than 500 hands before it finally became too worn for further reading.

Several white newspapers and magazines sent regularly copies of their publications to white soldiers in this theatre without charge. Colored soldiers are hoping that Negro newspapers throughout America will follow suit. An appropriation is understood to have been requested of the war department for subscribing to several of the leading journals, but it is expected that months will pass before this request can get through normal military channels.

'VIOLATOR'
OF BLACKOUT
—WAS DEAD

By Opal Tandy

E. L. Jones, 70-odd years old, left the light burning in his small store at 417 Indiana avenue, during the recent blackout and was reported as a violator but there is nothing that can be done about it.

At exactly 9:30 last Sunday night sirens began their weird chants heralding first blackout test into darkness. Air raid headquarters for district 28 is across the street from Jones' shop and as the sirens started, Percy Saunders, head warden, started his men who wear white helmets out on their beats which covers most of the avenue and adjacent area. One by one the light up and down the levy were snuffed out except at 417, where a faint glow contrasted against the stygian blackness.

Saunders raced across the street with his flashlight pointing downward. He beat on the door and blew his whistle intermittently but no one answered the door. Under his breath he swore at Jones for spoiling his otherwise perfect record and then pumped on his car to cover the rest of his district.

When all the light came on again, Saunders reluctantly ordered his assistant to turn Jones' name in as a violator. The light in Jones' store burned all through the night, the next day and night and then early Tuesday afternoon, Archie Bowen, 40 years old 423 1/2 Indiana avenue, aroused by idle curiosity, looked down through the transom and saw the elderly man lying dead on his face.

Dr. L. A. Lewis, deputy coroner, investigated and sent the body to City Morgue. He said death was due to natural causes.

were wrong but he was scared to say anything because the police might have beat him around the way they did the colored folks in the tavern.

Tuesday morning Hood and Jackson protested at the Board of Safety against the actions of Sergeant Lieke and his squad and asked that charges be filed against them. Chief Becker said that the safety board will try Lieke, Peak, and limit on charges of conduct unbecoming officers on April 7th. They have been taken out of the squad, Becker said but have not been suspended pending action of the board. "I'll investigate the case further," Becker said, "and I'll see to it that justice is done."

OLD WESTSIDE
RESIDENT DIES

JAMES ROBERT GRANT

James Robert Grant, 82 years old, 1061 North Sheffield avenue, died Tuesday after an extended illness. He was a resident of this city for 38 years, being a native of Boyle County, Kentucky. He was a member of the Bethel AME church. Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Sarah Bell Grant, daughter, Mrs. Mary B. Walker, three granddaughters, and three great grandchildren. Funeral rites were conducted from the Caldwell A. M. E. Z. church with burial in Mt. Jackson Cemetery.

CHURCH GUILD
SCHOLARSHIP

In response to the plea made recently by Dr. Russell A. Lane, principal of Crispus Attucks high school, many organizations have pledged their support for the 1943 Scholarship Drive of that school. The large number of these responses indicate that this drive will be the most successful in the history of the school.

Announcement is made by Dr. Lane, of the receipt of a contribution from St. Monica's Guild of St. Philip's Episcopal church. Modern business, industry, and professions require more training and better training than they have ever required. These young people are our hope for the efficient reconstruction of the post-war world. We owe them an opportunity for the best training and preparation that can be found. They must compete on the basis of their individual training as well as native ability.

It is urged that every social, civic, religious, or fraternal group contact Dr. Lane or Andrew W. Ramsey, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, and pledge its financial help in this vital effort to enable these boys and girls to continue their education.

workable plan could be devised. When questioned as to how far reaching this QDT message is, R. S. Simmons, secretary of the Negro American league, said that it means that teams in both big leagues will not be able to operate this season.

To Open Season May 18
 CHICAGO. (ANP)—Opening day for the Negro American league will be May 16 with July 4 the closing date for the first half. It was decided at the league meeting, held at the Grand hotel Sunday with Dr. J. B. Martin, president, presiding.

Those in attendance were: Ernest Wright, Erie, Pa.; T. Y. Baird, and J. L. Wilkerson, Kansas City; Wilbur Hayes, Cleveland; T. H. Hayes, Jr., Drs. W. S. and B. B. Martin, Memphis; W. S. Welch, W. M. "Bill" Margolis and R. S. Simmons of Chicago. Mr. Margolis represented Syd Pollock, North Terrytown, N. Y., who was unable to attend.

President Martin described in details his activities in the past several weeks toward getting transportation for the league teams and it brought praise from the body.

James "Cool Papa" Bell, Chicago American Giant centerfielder, pressed Roy McKnight, Red Sox in a trade for Lloyd "Ducky" Deavenport of the Memphis team.

Tom Wilson president of the Negro National league, was a visitor at the league meeting and delivered a short address. He said that the Negro American league could always depend on the Negro National league for cooperation.

Ben Linton and George Quinn, promoters of Detroit, addressed the league on separate propositions, stating their possibilities of securing playing fields in Detroit and were seeking the cooperation of the Negro American league teams to assist in furnishing entertainment for the war workers and fans in their city. All agreed that Detroit was a great baseball town, and would be glad to cooperate with any one bringing a light interesting and profitable proposition.

"That makes it practically impossible for our league to go on," Dr. Martin said. "Our six teams normally did all their traveling in buses owned by the clubs, and the Negro National League operated on the same basis."

Dr. Martin said the fact that the teams played in many small towns made it difficult to use the railroads.

tavern in 21st street, on several occasions. At police headquarters James "Bubber" Mitchell, owner of the tavern, told Inspector Tooley and Deputy Inspector Edward Roush that he had received money several times in envelopes and given it to Officer Kennedy.

But Mitchell, when questioned by Reporters for the Recorder, changed his statement and said that he had lied to the police.

Changes Statement
 Another of the men who testified at the hearing said that he did not state that he had ever given the officers any money and that the only reason he was down town at the police station was because another cab driver named Clemmons said that Sergeant Preston Heater would arrest him if he did not tell the chief all he knew about the police taking graft.

When they heard that they were "under fire," Davenport and Kennedy asked for a hearing and were called in by the Inspector. Inspector Tooley took the officers' caps, shields, badges, call box keys, and night sticks until their cases are heard which date has not been set as yet.

Kennedy and Davenport blamed Sergeant Preston Heater, head of a vice squad, for their trouble. Davenport, who recently finished high on the examination for a uniformed sergeant, said that Heater made the cab drivers give the statements under threat of arrests so that he could be suspended and lose his chances of becoming a Sergeant and replace him who is a sergeant and has never gone to police school.

Kennedy, a veteran member of the department with more than twenty years to his credit, said that Heater held a grudge against him and had knocked every other colored police on the force. Davenport was in the top ten of those passing the sergeants' examination and was eligible for a promotion.

He and Kennedy have made an outstanding record since being assigned to car 31, recovering six stolen cars last month, which was more than all other police teams put together had done, besides numerous burglaries and stick-up jobs that have been "cleaned up" by them.

When informed by the Recorder of the investigation being made by that office, Chief Becker said: "Well, if what you say about that statement being sworn to and signed, is true, it seems as though Davenport just got a vacation with pay and will soon go back to work."

The chief reprimanded Officer Grant Hawkins for wilfully beating Charles Brown, 24, 627 West Michigan street, and not arresting him. Hawkins and Patrolman Hadley were called to the man's home by neighbors who said that a disturbance was going on. When they found the officers had to force their way in. When he made out his "special" report to the chief, Hadley stated that he never left the police car after Hawkins brought Brown out of the house. Becker said that the police must learn not to beat citizens up. The officers were not suspended.

Steve Davis, 35 years old, became so enthusiastic over the tactics of the Commandos until it turned into a disaster for him. Davis, recently discharged from Camp Atterbury, was demonstrating to some friends in the 1100 block North Senate avenue, how the Commandos fight with a knife and accidentally stabbed himself in the right leg. Officers John Metzger and Grant Hawkins sent him to City Hospital in an ambulance.

Homer Birdwell, 23 years old, 1022 N. West street, was arrested this week, on charges of disorderly conduct, malicious trespassing, and assault and battery. Police called to 26th street and Capitol avenue early Sunday night learned that Birdwell allegedly fought an employee in the drug store at 2602 North Capitol avenue, and later police charged he smashed a window cutting his arm. Birdwell was treated at St. Vincent's Hospital for a lacerated arm and hand. His case has been continued in Municipal Court Room 3 before Judge John L. McNelis.

FIVE NATIONALITIES WAR ON THE AXIS

These girls are but five of several hundred working on delicate aircraft instruments in General Electric's factory at Lynn, Mass. They represent five nationalities. From left to right: Evelyn Savory, American; Anne Sotiris, Greek; Marie St. Pierre, French; Frances Goonyep, Chinese, and Gertrude Hlenski, Polish. Some of the coils on which these girls work are wound with wire but one-third the diameter of the human hair. Dust and lint from clothing often causes trouble with such delicate work so all employees must wear starched white frocks at work.

DRY CLEANERS 'NEEDED' WORK, WMC REVEALS

Commercial dry cleaners in the Indianapolis area have been declared a "locally needed" industry, William H. Spencer, Regional Director of the War Manpower Commission, announced today.

The declaration came as a result of a petition signed by eight operators representing approximately 85 per cent of the dry cleaning establishments in Marion County. The order will enable the dry cleaning industry in this area to participate in the stabilization program outlined by the Indianapolis Area Committee. There will be no change in the present selective service status of workers of the industry. That is, workers may be deferred for various reasons, but not as being in an essential industry as far as selective service is concerned.

The Indianapolis Area War Manpower Committee gave favorable consideration to the petition and recommended acceptance by the Regional Director of the War Manpower Commission.

Since workers have felt that their jobs were not considered part of the war effort, large numbers of them have transferred to other jobs. Thus the labor turnover in dry cleaning establishments has been extremely high, causing a breakdown in the service rendered to the armed forces and to the public.

The necessity for conserving clothing and other essential goods for the duration of the war and the maintenance of public health was cited by the operators as further reason for declaring the industry locally necessary to the conduct of the war effort. They emphasized the fact that England has found it necessary to include dry cleaning in the list of essential industries as a means of maintaining morale and for conserving existing clothing supplies.

The dry cleaning industry in the Indianapolis area has already limited its operations to the cleaning of necessary clothing and has reduced delivery service to 25 per cent of its former volume. This has been done in spite of the heavy additional demands upon the industry's facilities.

ATTORNEY WILL PROBE CHARGE OF KIDNAPPING

Henry J. Richardson Jr., prominent local attorney, has started a preliminary investigation into a case involving the arrest of a young woman which Richardson described as being "tattamout to kidnapping." The victim, Miss Dorothy Irving, 19 years old, 2401 North Keystone ave., was arrested at Brazil, Ind., by the local police there and kept in jail several hours then released to state police who brought her back to Indianapolis as a suspect who allegedly escaped from the isolation hospital on east Market st., here. Miss Irving said that she boarded a Greyhound Bus last week at about 10:45 p.m., and was headed to her home in Mississippi when she was arrested.

Believed Innocent.

At Brazil, she said, three local officers boarded the bus and came and took her off in spite of her protests. She said that they accused her of being a girl who had escaped from the isolation hospital at Indianapolis and refused to look at her sugar rationing card which would have identified her, she said.

They kept her locked up she said, for two or three hours and then the state police came. They refused to allow her to communicate with her friends here or to give her a test by a doctor. Miss Irving said, but on the way back one of the state police officers said that he believed she was innocent. When they arrived at the isolation hospital, Miss Irving said, the room mate of the escaped girl said that she was not the girl. Then officers took Miss Irving to her home which is the subsistence building of the NYA and after apologizing released her. Miss Irving is a stenographer for the NYA and is directly under the supervision of Mrs. Myrtle Roper, director of subsistence.

Dr. Clyde Beatty, in charge of the isolation ward, said that the escaped girl was one of several who got away within the last few days. She has not been captured.

he said.

Attorney Richardson said that he is investigating the case from all angles and if it warrants such action, he will file a $10,000 suit against all parties involved. The idea that police deliberately take a person off a bus and don't even allow them to communicate with their friends or even try to see if they are the person wanted or not is tantamount to kidnapping. If the bus company is involved and I can lay any blame at all on them I will sue all and every person involved," Richardson said. He said that the police of the police departments to take the law into their own hands at will has gone too far and must stop.

Miss Irving was on her way home and was to stop off at St. Louis, Mo., to visit some friends. Her trip will be delayed for several weeks she said because of this affair.

ABERNATHY RITES HELD AT SHILOH

Mrs. Grace Abernathy, 1735 Brooker st., died at 11 p.m., March 29 at City hospital after an illness of one year. A native of Pulaski, Tenn., Mrs. Abernathy had lived in Indianapolis for more than fifteen years and was an active member of Shiloh Baptist church, where she sang in the choir up until the time of her illness. She is survived by the widowers, James; two daughters, Mrs. Bessie Barber and Mrs. Mary Rhodes, one son, Buffin Abernathy and several grandchildren and great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at Shiloh Baptist church Thursday afternoon at one o'clock with Craig Bros. funeral home in charge. Interment will be in New Crown cemetery.

KNOX TO SPEAK

$125,000,000 in sales of all treasury issues during April. This quota does not include the millions of dollars that Hoosier banks will be asked to invest.

"The program will launch the state's biggest war bond campaign and at the same time will be Secretary Knox's thank you to Indiana for the state's 'paid in full' in March war bonds for the new cruiser Vincennes," said Mr. Pulliam. "It will be second navy day in Indiana, with representatives of every naval training station in the state at the rally."

These navy officers and the state organization of the war finance committee will be guests at a banquet preceding the rally and will attend in a body.

Col. Alvin Owsley, Muncie, past commander of the American Legion and former United States ambassador to Denmark and Rumania, will be the opening speaker on the program and Gov. Henry F. Schriener will introduce Secretary Knox.

The "Meet Your Navy" program, familiar to all America every Friday night, has become the navy's outstanding airplane show. An off-the-station appearance is rare. The 151 members of the cast will come to Indianapolis in special coaches attached to a Chicago-Indianapolis train. It will be the first time away from "home" for the Great Lakes chorus.

The program's popularity has been increasing weekly. Radio dialers in every "home town" from one side of the nation to the other listen eagerly to see if sailors from their communities will be included in the group of talented blue jackets presented on the musical variety program.

Demonstrating one of the principles for which the country is now at war, "Meet Your Navy" is a perfect example of democracy in action. It is based on the oft-expressed statement of Lt. Commander Peabody, who is officer in charge of the station's band, music and entertainment department, "We don't care who you were before you joined the Navy—the point is, what can you do now?" As a result, the program presents a group of outstanding sailor recruits at the training station each week. Auditions for the next week's program are held each Friday afternoon. Standing rule during auditions is that even the names of men who try out are not known until they are accepted or rejected.

Regular features of the nationwide Navy show include selections by the Station's military band, a rhythm orchestra which includes many of the best dance musicians in the country and a hymn by the 60-voice Great Lakes choir directed by Lt. Commander Hjalmar F. Hanson.

EASTSIDE MAN SAYS JIM CROW CROWS WORSE

(By C. W. Williams)

Conditions are either getting better or worse in this city. I do not know which! Friday evening, a colored gentleman whose name is being withheld, went into Van's drugs store located at Roosevelt and East 17th sts., to make a purchase. About to leave, he noticed root-beer by the glass. Being thirsty he also ordered a glass.

"Give me a glass of that root-beer, please," requested the gentleman.

"Sorry, but we are not allowed to serve you root-beer," was the reply.

"Why not?" asked the gentleman. "Because you are colored," he answered.

"When did you all start that stuff?" he inquired.

"Just lately," he replied.

It has further been reported that only a few colored, if any, may purchase ice cream by the pints or quarts at Van's drugs store.

Another complaint comes to our attention: a Frank Padron, formerly a resident of this city but now living in Detroit, states that one night he went to Van's drugs store and purchased a bottle of Floto water. When he opened the bottle and was about to drink the contents the management demanded that he drink it on the outside and then return the empty bottle.

A great shock and rebuke to all colored people is this condition. But with the co-operation of civic leaders, this uninvited evil can readily be removed. At this point WE CALL upon our leaders and organizations!

CONSTIPATION

Constipation, which some authorities believe to be the root of nearly all diseases, is a condition that becomes progressively worse. In the beginning, it is a failure of the intestinal muscles to move along the waste. As this waste becomes encrusted within the intestines, the condition becomes worse.

The muscles which operate the intestines are in turn operated by nerves. The primary trouble is irritation of these nerves which occurs at the spine, and can be corrected by Chiropractic adjustments.

Elizabeth Brizentine-Taft

IF ONE MORNING WHEN you awaken and realize that the sun's shining brightly, you can hear the birds chirping and singing so sweetly, "Wake up, Wake up," when you stand upon the floor and stretch and feel that you'd like to stretch a mile if you didn't have to walk back; if you suddenly lean down to see if the register is on because you're so comfortably and snugly warm and you find it off as tight as Dick's hat band; then you peep at yourself in the mirror and see that your color is quite muddy in the bright beaming sunlight; then you turn from side to side and realize that your avoirdupoise needs a little rolling and flattening down; then you look out the window and see that the buds have appeared on the twigs of the limbs of the trees in the ground and the green grass has begun to grow all and then you rush to the bathroom and you feel that a hot bath is the thing to start this beautiful day off just right; after the said bath, you just decide to step into a lovely spring dress or a spring suit that's been awaiting Spring's arrival and all dressed you step outside to greet the day you find yourself wandering miles away and away! You decide to walk to work, by the time you get there you've just about decided that you'd like to take a day off. Wander and meander about the country side, you'd like to be alone, perhaps take a pot-shot at your old pastime hobby of dabbling with the paints, or you feel that you could write a bit of poetry; or you'd rather not be bothered with the hub-dub of office routines! Sister, that's spring fever you've got, and it's a catchy thing to have!

When your son comes dashing home from school and he wants to come out of those heavy trousers and step into something lighter; when he wants to get outdoors and play marbles and fly his kite, and forgets to even come in to wash up before supper, mother it's spring.....And when that darling lil apple pie daughter decides that now that's she a lil bit older and she wants a silk dress with silk hose and little heels on her slippers and she sits and mopes and sighs and bemoans about the house all day and the only thing's really on her mind is getting outdoors if to do nothing but just sit with her little hands cupped in her chin, beware, it's spring fever! Mother dear, and your little girl is about to grow out of her baby days!

When those teensters come dashing in from school and after supper's done and they want to take a stroll out into the night, and you pry and prove and pear until you're blue in the face and you quite suddenly find out that it's Johnnie What's-his-name, or Mary Sue What-you-may-call-it that they're so anxious to stroll with, look out, it's that first love budding with the coming spring!.....It's in the air!.....

And when you come home hubby dear and wife decides it's warm enough today to get started on that Victory garden and you go digging down into the cellar for your tools and then after so much laborious work you suddenly find out how stiff you are: that the feeling has hit you too, and you'd rather put on that old sweater and sit out on the porch and smoke your pipe, beware, hubbies dear, you've got that spring fever too!

And when you notice that the wall paper's beginning to show the winter dust and smoke, and when everything you touch seems gritty and dusty, and the family comes home for supper and you've decided to have the living room in the kitchen and the kitchen on the back-porch and the beds are all down, and you have to squeeze through and in the best way you can because you've got all the furniture in the middle of the floor; when you are deciding to go to bed and you have to pin the newspapers up to the shades or the windows because you've taken all the curtains down, and you have to step long and wide because there's fresh paint on the floor, beware, mother dear, the spring fever has got you too!

And last but not least, when you've been admiring a certain so-and-so for a long long time and you've had several dates during the year and you just think that maybe things aren't as serious as you might think, and you decide that you will take a last chance and date the same person and everywhere you go it's so crowded and stuffy until you suggest a stroll and the moon is shining so beautifully down upon you, and the air is sweetly perfumed with spring and you feel queer and ticklish about your heart, and the other person with you appears to feel the same way and then in a tangible moment your lips meet and kiss, and you think, "I Love you!" That's spring fever too, and you've got it bad and it might be good!

And when you sum it all down, most everybody gets that don't care what may be feeling around about this time and it's pretty hard to get yourself adjusted.

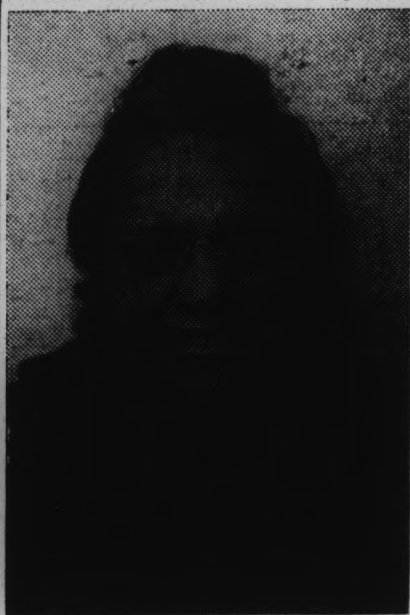

The Jesse Perdues didn't need much adjusting evidently when they entertained last Sunday evening for thirty friends who celebrated the birthday of Mr. Perdue!.....Speedie Jamison, popular and well-liked Elk member of Indiana Lodge 104 was also entertained with a surprise birthday party at his home in N. West street at which time Miss Mary Gill, Marie Coleman, Mrs. Maggie Gaines and Miss Mary J. Coleman, Henry Lee Wilbur Tyler and James McKenzie were guests. Games and music were featured and Mr. Jamison received many lovely gifts.

Willie B. Brown, flight instructor and supervisor of the Coffey School of aeronautics was in the city last week as guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Brown, 1501 Yandes street. Willie B. who is an old friend of the family formerly lived in Indianapolis and in Terre Haute, and is now doing splendid work at this school in Chicago. She was wearing a black dress with a black feathered hat, a strand of white pearls, and a fur colored spring coat. She visited the Recorder offices accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Hallie Brown, her brother, David E. Brown, her cousin, Sewell Bridges and Mrs. Kitty Austin. A family reunion was held while Miss Brown was in the city, and Sgt. Preston Heater, a relative of Miss Brown's also, was a most efficient guide about the city.

Members of Tillman H. Harpole Post Unit 249 gave a covered dish surprise party and flowers March 24 for Mrs. Barbara Twines, 306 W. 25th street who is ill. Mrs. Elizabeth Porter is president and urges members and friends to visit Mrs. Twines.....Get well cards, flowers and visits will be appreciated by Mrs. Ethel Brooks who underwent an operation at City hospital Tuesday afternoon. Her condition is reported fairly good!.....

Mrs. Marian Bingham entertained with a lovely party Sunday afternoon honoring the third birthday of her daughter, Barbara and her niece, Nancy Tyler. Guests were Joyce Ann and Carol Jean Pruitt, Patricia and Melvyn McGuire jr., Gary Houdley, Dan Owens, Annette Hopper, Raymond Owens and Joan Bigham. The children spent an enjoyable afternoon..... In Crawfordsville, Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson entertained with a birthday party honoring the birthdays of Elsie, Madonna and Norma Chandler. The guests were members of the Mending Bee and their friends and games and refreshments were enjoyed. A large birthday cake centered the table with decorations

Engaged

Mrs. Estell Bradley, 212 Gaisendorf st., is engaged to George H. Stovall. The wedding will take place sometime in April. Mr. Stovall is supervisor foreman at Glidden Mills in this city.

Lockefield Tenants Council Meets

The Lockefield tenant's council held its regular meeting last Monday evening in building number-17. Many important discussions were underway mainly the enthusiasm of the Council in sponsoring a "Military Ball" and sharing the proceeds with the USO Center, Camp Atterbury and the Council. A campaign Clean-Up Project was also a center of discussion by the Civic Committee headed by Mrs. Fannie D. Posey. The group is interested in mapping out a continuous program against intruders in the Lockefield project, disturbances of the mail boxes, "zig-zag walking" on the grass and many other "don'ts" which tends to lower the beauty of the little "City". We have been so wonderfully blessed with a gift by the Government.

All members of the Council are urged to be present at the next regular meeting the 2nd Monday night in April. Gorge Chatman is president; Mrs. Fannie D. Posey, is reporter.

Beau Champs Hold Meeting

The "Beau Champ" Republican Women's club held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Louise Brannon. Due to such a widespread demand for additional Street Cars on the City Hospital Line that the "Beau Champ" club is trying by the effort of petitions which have been spread along with numerous other efforts which have been made to better accommodate the forced riders on that line. We appreciate very much the assistance given us by those of you who will sign the same. The club was very tastefully served by the hostess, Mrs. Fannie D. Posey is president; Mrs. Gertrude Carpenter is secretary.

and candles for each one's age. Guests were: Betty Lou Robinson, Shirley Arnold, Mary Alice Robinson, Kith Churchill, Howard Churchill, Benjamin Perry, Robert Byron, Frances Elmore, Johnny Elmore, and Miss Irene Keene. The girls received several nice gifts.

Also in Crawfordsville, Girl Scout Troop No. 1 helped with a Victory tea held at the Second Baptist church honoring the men in service from each church. Mattie Mitchell, Betty Chandler and Annjanette Williams presented and retired the flag. Earnest Williams and Madonna Chandler presented the service flags to each church a gift of the Modern Priscilla club. The scouts are working hard on their badge work so that they can complete their first and second class ranks, which will be presented at the Girl Scout Rally at the high school building April 30, at which time a dramatic sketch, "The Progress of the Negro in America" will be presented.

It's always nice to have young people around you, at least Mrs. Carrie Edlen, 430 W. Michigan street would agree with us. At present she has four of her nieces visiting her who are: Mesdames Florence Caldwell, and Mrs. Clara Lillard of Middleton, Ohio; Miss Nettie Derriekson of Chicago and Mrs. Eva Wills of this city, formerly of Middletown. Mrs. Edlen entertained with a dinner party in their honor Tuesday, followed by a theatre party Wednesday at which time Mrs. Yvonne Walker was also guest.

Beauty Hints

By Nina Temple
A LIPSTICK HINT

Now that we are war women are finding out many new tricks to use for keeping themselves as beautiful as heretofore at very small cost. One of the secrets is this: Don't throw away your old lipstick but take all of the little ends of coloring that remain beyond the metal tube. Melt it out and place in a small jar. Use a brush or even your finger for tinting the lips. You can even save lots of money by remembering this gentle hint. WISE SAYINGS

FATIGUE LINES

After the long, long day, the face looks older than it did in the early morning hours. This is caused by the tiny fatigue lines that lie over the face like a veil. But there is a simple remedy for this and you can regain your freshness as tho by magic wand. It is this, just wash your face in cold water and rest a few minutes afterwards. Then look again in the glass and you will behold a marvelous change, your face will tingle and glow and the little lines will have scampered away to their hiding places to lie in wait to catch you unawares another day.

Federation of Assn. Club News

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE.

The Federation of Associated Clubs Inc., is campaigning for 2000 new members. It was organized 1937 from neulons of eight social clubs and now enrolls 110 social, civic and cultural clubs and members at large with a sum total of over 3000 in all. The drive will close May 10 when an informational meeting for new members will be held in the club home at 2309 N. Capitol ave.

Mrs. Pearl Williams is general chairman of the drive assisted by Mesdames Odessa Dean, Leana Cave, Madeline Miller, Naomi Williams, Ruth Russell, Nora Williams, M. T. Lowe Frank Dickerson and Houston Lewis as assistant general chairmen. All citizens or clubs interested in the work of the Federation of Associated Clubs, regardless of any affiliations are eligible for membership.

Meetings are held second Monday of each month at the club home 2309 N. Capitol ave. The main object of the federation is to secure equal rights, privileges and opportunities for the Negro as of any other American citizen and on the same basis, but does not confine itself exclusively to these objectives. It has assisted welfare agencies, given scholarship fund, helped the aged and sought civic improvement. In 1942 it obtained a centrally located club home at 2309 N. Capitol ave., where the public has use of the building for civic or social activities.

All money is raised by parties and entertainments of various kind with the exception of a very small joining fee.

MOVIE STARS AID FUND DRIVE TO DEFEND 'BERTH 13' SUSPECT

LOS ANGELES, April 2. (ANP)—Promising the Coogs and Waiters union to aid by their presence in seeing that an accused member gets necessary counsel for a fair trial, Hollywood movie actors will aid in raising funds for the defense of Robert Lee Folkes, charged with the Berth 13 murder of a woman passenger on a speeding passenger train near Albany, Ore. They were to appear at a dance on April 1 at Elks hall.

Newcastle, Ind.

Services at Bethel Sunday were well attended. Rev. Walter Chenault has for his subject, "None but the Righteous". Junior church held its regular session; the young people are evincing more and more interest in this part of their church activities.

7:45 p.m., the Rose City Male chorus of Newcastle, rendered a wonderful musical program auspices of Senior choir; this was also the celebration of the chorus's second anniversary. With Miss Thelma Thurman as directress; Mrs. Mary Thurman as president of the Senior choir and Mr. Oran Bassett as president of the Rose City chorus, a fine program of religious renditions was enjoyed by a mixed audience composed of many leading citizens of both races. Bethel church is a very busy place of religious activities during the entire week. Several out-of-town singers came over to assist in this program. The members and pastor of Bethel are happy to express their appreciation to all who in any way contributed toward the success of this day's work.

Fellow workers of Folkes, who was a second cook on the train, are unanimous in disavowing belief of his guilt and pointed to the fact that he performed all of his usual duties on the morning when the killing occurred. They also said they noted nothing unusual in his demeanor.

Movie stars scheduled to appear at the dance included Ben Carter, Hattie McDaniels, Ernest Whitman, Nicodemus, Deoley Wilson, Clarence Muse, Herbie Jeffries and Louise Beavers.

The Answer to Diet Problems

Serve Children
Dishes They Require
That Are Also
Dishes They Desire

There'll always be a diet problem so long as there are children. It does not vex some mothers, but in most homes it is a constant source of worry.

The children actually need certain foods—milk, potatoes, greens and meats. But George despises potatoes, Grace ignores spinach, Gertrude has no particular use for meat—and they all refuse to drink that most important food, milk.

Mothers cannot afford to take the easy way out and serve dishes the children desire, unless they know how to make those desired dishes, required dishes as well. Really, this can very often be accomplished. Even though children refuse to drink milk, they will never refuse ice cream, or rennet-custards—both filled with rich milk. Rennet-custards are ideal for luncheon, dinner or before-bed snacks. They are easy to prepare, economical and healthful. Try the following as answers to your diet problems:

Marshmallow Maple Rennet-Custard
1 package maple rennet powder
1 pint milk, not canned
5 marshmallows, diced

Dissolve marshmallows in 1 cup hot milk. Then add 1 cup cold milk and warm slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on the inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.) not hot, proceed according to directions on package. Chill, then serve.

Lemon Grape-Nut Rennet-Custard
1 rennet tablet
1 tablespoon cold water
1 pint milk, not canned
4 tablespoons Grape-Nuts
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon lemon flavoring
4 tablespoons raisins
Few drops yellow food color

Mix Grape-Nuts and raisins. Divide among 6 dessert glasses. Make rennet-custard according to directions in package. Pour over Grape-Nuts. Chill. When ready to serve, sprinkle with Grape-Nuts. This recipe may also be used with any kind of crisp cookie or graham cracker instead of Grape-Nuts. The raisins may be omitted for variety.

JEFFERSON PRAISED BANNEKER

The Library of Congress, marking the 200th year of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, throws light upon the man as one unsurpassed, with the possible exception of Benjamin Franklin, in his pursuit and interest in science. Among the many items of the exhibition on Jefferson, is a manuscript draft of a letter which he wrote to Benjamin Banneker, colored mathematician and astronomer of the latter 18th century, in which Jefferson acknowledges a copy of Banneker's almanac and expresses his interest in and sympathy for the Negro in race. Jefferson compliments Banneker for his talent and expresses the hope that the condition of the Negro will be improved.

ELKS ORATORS WILL SPEAK ON CONSTITUTION

The Education Committee of Indiana 104 and Halcyon Temple 127, are making great efforts toward their 16th oratorical contest sponsored by the I. B. P. O. Elks of the World. The Committee wishes this to be one of the outstanding events of the whole 16 years. The constitution of the United States is a set of these principles in themselves, fair and just to all alike. The Elks are of the opinion that if these contests will direct the minds of the colored students to a study of the organic law, the Constitution of the United States, the results will be a change in the public mind to the end that the constitution will be interpreted and administered in accordance with the fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

Any girl or boy may be the winner of the Elks scholarship. Encourage these boys and girls by coming out in large numbers to hear these orators discuss the Constitution of the United States. These contests are held each spring Hon. W. C. Hueston, sr. is Commissioner of Education. The public is cordially invited. Watch for place and date. Frank Williams is general chairman, Dr. Hatfield Lee, secretary and reporter.

Vincennes, Ind.

Dudley Miller—Services began Thursday night with a program rendered by the Missionary society.

A gala day was held Sunday Mar. 28 at Bethel when the members celebrated its 104 anniversary.

The day began with a wonderful sermon by Rev. Jonathan Brewer as speaker at the morning service. 2:30, Rev. Brewer held the audience spellbound with another fine sermon. The history of the church from its organization up to the present day, read by Miss Mamie Long was well taken. Rev. Enoch Monroe pastor of Sec. Bapt. assisted with the services. Rev. Brewer-Vincennes was greeted by many friends and has been the guest of Rev. Israel Slaughter, pastor. They were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Miller while in the city. The services closed Sunday night, long to be remembered by all who attended.

You and Your Church

(By Lowell M. Trice)

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles designed to acquaint you better with your neighborhood churches and the many worthwhile contributions that they are making to the spiritual and cultural life of Indianapolis.)

Huge ceiling lights were dimming... the solemn tones of the organ were dying in the distance, as a great hush descended upon the assembled congregation. A voice, clear and distinct—as though coming from Heaven itself—rising in perfect tempo repeating a verse from the Holy Writ: "I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up Holy hands, without wrath and doubting."

This was the setting for the Sunday morning worship services last week at the Mount Paran Baptist Church—largest in the Indianapolis Baptist Association.

The pastor, Rev. C. Henry Bell—who has held a successful sixteen years pastorate of the church—was reading from the first book of Timothy, second chapter, eighth verse; having chosen as his sermon topic "THE POWER OF PRAYER." As he spoke, there was unfolded a beautiful and soul-inspiring message, which at the end of forty-five minutes had captured the imagination and left the audience silent with suspense and wonderment. I dare say that there was not a person within earshot of his voice that didn't leave the Holy Sanctuary with a new found insight into the power of prayer and its potent value in the every day life of struggling humanity.

Coming through over a quarter century of trials and tribulations, Mount Paran has had much to be thankful for. Boasting one of the largest Sunday Schools in the city, an enrollment of 339, an active church membership of 1500, a large BYPU, Missionary Society, and a number of clubs and organizations, she has gradually stretched forth her hands, until today she ranks as a potent factor in the community life of our great city.

charged his duties in their midst for some nineteen years. The Deacons being thoughtful and on the alert, made the choice of one in their own congregation to lead and carry on the work started by Dr. Farrell. So on September 30, 1927, Rev. C. Henry Bell was handed the reins of Spiritual Administration.

Under this young minister's capable leadership, the membership of Mount Paran has increased almost four-fold; the main indebtedness of the Church was paid off in March 1934 the indebtedness of the Pipe Organ—installed under Dr. Farrell—was paid; and in 1940, the church was able to employ as first full-time clerk, Rev. P. D. Jacobs, co-owner of Jacobs Bros. Funeral Home, has served the church in the capacity of associate Pastor for the past twelve years.

IN THE GROOVE

By Elizabeth Brizentine-Taft

Well, here's that spy agent again... only I'm issuing the OPA way... you know the ration! Got my ration card this for this groovy stuff! You folks will have to stop rationing your good times or else we'll have to cut out the ole column! That what you hear everywhere now! You can't get this without points, you can't get that without points, so now you'll have to have points to get the groove! Won't that just be ducky!

Topping the list this week is a V-letter from Pvt. Arthur Earl who's somewhere in the Southwest Pacific. He's fine and hopes that everything along the stem continues the same! Of course, he knows there have been some changes made! (Don't we all!) He sent his best regards to the Dick Shaws and their patrons and all his ole friends and he's hoping to whip the Japs and return to the stem soon! Too soon wouldn't come too soon I imagine! Pfc. Lawrence Holland out in California writes that the boys are doing all right and that they expect to cross the pond very soon! Velma Portia Owens, formerly Velma Bryant of this city is now a second lieutenant in the Ft. Benning, Ga., Station hospital and she's a dietician! You must give her credit, because she's doing splendid work and received her bars, Tuesday March 16th! So when you write Mrs. Owens now, address her as Lt. V. P. Owens, Station hospital, Ft. Benning, Ga., and that also calls for congratulations in a greet big way!

Opal L. Tandy passed another milestone last week-end and his gifts were plentiful from the fair ladies so he says! He received so many money clips until it's probable he won't have enough money to fasten them with! To wit! He's just that much of a big shot though to receive so many of them until it won't make any difference about the money angle! The loud talker! I know who's gift he cherished the most, but I'm not a loud talker so I won't tell on him... that is not until I see him in a spot where if I tell it might prove most embarrassing! Of course, you remember, that I'm a natural loud talker also!

Heartfelt sympathies are extended this week to Mrs. Mary Rhodes and family at the passing of her mother and their grandmother, Mrs. Grace Abernathy! A very dear little lady who has been beloved and respected by all who knew her and who at last has paid the debt which must be paid! Also, sympathies are extended to Wesley O. Jackson, former Naptown After Dark columnist of The Indianapolis Recorder and proprietor of White Hall, in the passing of his mother! "The world is quite another place without the smile of mother's face!"

Annabelle Smith is now visiting at home in Hoptown! Bet she'll have a lovely visit with that "lil ole lady," Mrs. Plack and she'll have plenty on the beam when she returns! Beatrice Watts is back from Windy City and reports that there was no rationing of the good times she had and that she definitely didn't need any points!

Once in a great while when a soldier is inducted into the armed forces, despite the fact he has USO centers, and what you may have in way of variety entertainments his heart continues to wander and yearn for the loved one he left behind! Sometimes there are more than one, but it's really pathetic when you find one who has his heart set on one and can't hear from that special ONE! Here's a portion of a letter from such a soldier to such a young lady! "Darling, I was expecting a letter from you today, but I was disappointed. I thought you would write more than once a week or twice anyway. Darling, I have told you that I didn't care if you only wrote only a line or two I wanted to hear from you and only you! Darling... this letter was unfinished... I'm wondering if women sometimes really know when they are the only one? It's hard, I'll admit, to tell definitely because we know that some men have peculiar ways of showing it, but it seems that the usual case of love happens when we least expect it! I'd like to say that if you have a soldier away from you now, or you are away from a soldier, it's the sweetest thing in the world for him to receive a letter from you, especially after he's found out that you are the ONLY ONE and that it really doesn't matter if nobody else writes as long as you do! Girls, write to these lonely boys! Remember that they are alone sometimes; surroundings may not be pleasant, they may be away from home for the first time and you can be most important in their lives now by writing, that is, unless you know differently about the guy and then sometimes a little letter won't hurt then! Maybe absence does make the heart grow fonder, and not for someone else in all cases!

Saw Percy (Jackie P. Saunders) last week and he says that he had a pretty fair time in Windy City, but that he's still taking it easy! Of course, the sun wasn't shining on both sides of the street then, so no telling how he feels about the situation now! The boys all turned out in their uniforms for the Blackout Sunday night. With black boots, tan breeches, tan jackets, trench coats, arm bands and their helmets! The Jackie P's is a little different from the others and he has two! But of course he's the air raid warden! Nevertheless, they tell me they looked very fine indeed! Of course, I was black-outing at the Gardens in the lovely apartment of the Bill Robinsons! What a blackout! That's 30 points!

NOTES on the cuff... Leroy Dailey and Elwood Crane wish everyone to know that they have definitely given up giving dinner parties and such, but that they now belong to an exclusive riding club and they ride, Wednesday and Friday nites, and in blackouts too, if such be the case! Leroy not only likes to have his name and activities scooped, but he likes for people to crash parties, also! Sam Allen was entertained by the genial Lincoln hotel crew prior to his departure for the armed forces Friday at the home of the Elwood Cranes! This is 100 points, period!

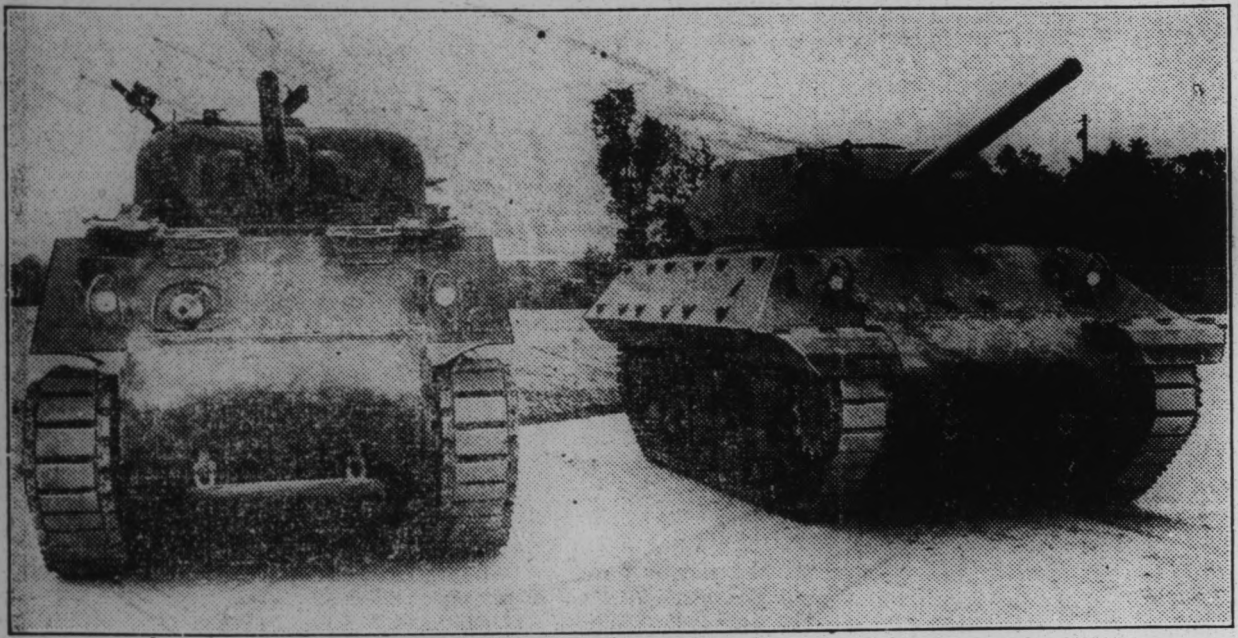

FISH WANTS WILLKIE OUT OF GOP

WASHINGTON, April 2. (ANP)—In a bold move looking forward to a brighter political future for the Republican party, Hamilton Fish, long time Republican member of the house, demanded from the floor of the house that Wendell Willkie leave the Republican party.

Congressman Fish, remembered for his former association with the famous 369th regiment of New York, declared that Willkie could not be elected even if he were nominated. Mr. Fish demanded that Willkie clear out and leave the path open for someone who would win for the Republican party, declared Mr. Fish, the Democrats with another four years in power would ruin the country and overthrow every vestige of democracy in the republic. Outspoken, Mr. Fish did not bite his tongue about the Willkie chances and said the time had come for real Republicans to take over the reins of the Republican party.

HASTIE SCORES DEMOS, GOP'S AS ANTI-RACE

MINNEAPOLIS, April 2. (ANP)—Judge William H. Hastie, dean, Howard University school, former civilian aide to the secretary of war, delivered the principal address at the 17th annual meeting of the Minneapolis Urban League held at the Minneapolis Y. W. C. A. Tuesday. Speaking on the subject, "Factors in National Unity," before an audience of 600 people, Hastie scored members of the Democratic and Republican Parties forming what he termed an anti-Negro bloc in congress.

Both parties, he said are equally to blame for the pressure exerted against liberal administrators of government agencies who seek to conduct their programs with fairness to Negroes as well as to other people. He pointed out that there are different forms of national unity. Both Germany and Japan are unified nations, but their forms of unity are inconsistent with the principles and ideals inherent within the political and social life of America. Therefore this country, in its effort to establish national unity, must decide on what basis that unity is to be achieved.

Referring to the bloc in congress, Hastie said the Democrats wish to keep the southern bloc in line and the Republicans want to use the southern bloc for their own political purposes. Hastie was emphatic in stating that in order to achieve national unity based on democratic principles, it is necessary that Negroes and members of other minority groups must be given complete opportunity to serve in all branches of the armed forces and to share equally in the job that must be done on the industrial front and in the civilian defense program. Negroes who have been privileged to do so have distinguished themselves in battle and throughout the country, members of the race have gained equal distinction on the production line wherever they have been given a chance. He praised the job being done by the Minneapolis Urban League in integrating Negroes into Minneapolis industries.

Judge Hastie was introduced by Judge Luther W. Youngdahl, associate justice, Minnesota Supreme court. The Twin Cities Ordnance Plant chorus, an interracial group under the direction of Clarence H. Russell, rendered several selections including numbers from Porgy and Bess. The league's activities report was made by Chas. W. Washington, executive secretary. One of the many highlights of Mr. Washington's report was the fact that although Minneapolis is not considered a critical manpower area, many of the leading industries which have never before employed Negroes are proceeding rapidly on a planned basis to integrate Negroes into their plants. Mr. Washington also referred to the increased number of activities in which Negroes and white people are working together in the various branches of the Civilian Defense program.

The following officers of the league were elected: Thomas Vennum, president, Talmage B. Carey, vice president; Lloyd P. Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. Mabeth H. Paige, secretary.

DRAFT RULING AIDS WORKERS

WASHINGTON, March 26. (ANP)—What may be a boon to Negro migrant workers who have left certain agricultural areas to seek work in industry in the decision announced by the selective service administration to permit such employees changing the locale of their employment to request transfer of hearings on appeals for deferment on the basis of occupational classification, to the areas in which they are engaged rather than have the hearing where they formerly resided.

Selective service had found much incongruity among the many boards in the handling of these appeals. The step is designed to provide greater uniformity. The difficulty of setting distant local boards to comprehend specific employment conditions in another area, which might be a direct determinant in the ultimate decision on a deferment, had much to do with the change of procedure.

The new procedure will permit either employer or employee to request the transfer of appeal hearings. The request, however, must be made at the outset of the appeal. This right will be nullified if there is delay here as it is possible that some appellants might not seek the transfer if they know the distant board might act more favorably with them.

The written request for transfer must state the name of the registrant's employer and street address, county and state where the registrant is employed. Requests for transfers are forwarded from the local boards to state directors for action.

DC PRESS CLUB BARS SERVICE TO JUDGE HASTIE

WASHINGTON, March 26. (ANP)—Many members of the Washington Press club, composed of correspondents for white publications, are preparing to order a call meeting to lower racial bars in the club restaurant following an incident last week in which Judge William Hastie, former civilian aide to the secretary of war, was refused service.

Judge Hastie went to the press club cafe as the guest of I. P. Stone capital correspondent for P. M. Marshall Field's militant New York newspaper. They were to have lunch and discuss a series of articles to be written by Hastie for the publication.

The club steward refused to serve the men, contending that it was against the policy for Negroes to eat there. One of the Negro waiters made an effort to obtain their order. However, Judge Hastie did not leave and sat unconcerned for 45 minutes at the table discussing the proposed articles with Mr. Stone.

Many of the liberal correspondents were riled at the happening and are planning to present a petition banning discrimination at the call meeting. This petition is understood to need 25 signatures to become operative.

PRESS OFFICER IN WAR DEPT ASKS PENNS

PHILADELPHIA, April 2. (ANP)—Representing approximately 200,000 members of the I.B.P.O. Elks of the World, the Eastern Pennsylvania Fast Exalted Ruler council passed a unanimous motion here Sunday and immediately sent a night letter to Sec. of War Henry L. Stimson, asking that the war department place a Negro press officer on the staff of the public relations department.

Coming, as it did, just after the resignation of Judge William Hastie as civilian aide to the secretary and the bitter attack upon the way news of Negro soldiers is being handled by the OWI, made by Lester Granger, executive secretary of the Urban League, the Pennsylvania request is expected to have a strong bearing upon the future attitude on the war department as regards Negro representation in the news section of the army.

The matter was presented to the council by Herbert R. Cain, national secretary of the Elks Crusaders, and was immediately supported by Billy Webb, prominent local Elk figure, and the secretary of the council was ordered to draft a night letter to the secretary of war, telling him that the Negro Elks urged the advisability of adding a Negro military man to the war department staff to handle the news relationship with the colored press.

The general idea is that a member of the military forces should be put on the staff, who has the necessary newspaper qualifications and contacts and given a rank commensurate with his ability as a commissioned officer.

It has pointed out that several white newspapermen have been commissioned as public relations officers in the war department, and the commissioning of O. N. "Yank" Taylor, of the Chicago Times as a Major, in charge of the Sixth Service Command public Relations staff, is also cited.

The war department does not have a Negro press officer on its staff at all. The Associated Negro Press has also been advised that the Detroit branch of the NAACP largest branch in the country, will also make presentations to the secretary urging Negroes throughout the country have frequently complained about the inadequacy of information concerning the men in the military service under the present war department setup and feel that only a Negro press officer can truly discern properly handle news about colored troops.

The idea has been discussed widely, but the action of the local group marks the first definite move made by the Negro public to acquaint the war department with the public attitude. They want a man taken from the armed forces to fill the post.

SPECIAL ARMY SCHOOL HAS 2

CAMP SANTA ANITA, Calif.—The first two Negro technical students to enter Camp Anita, the Army's west coast Ordnance Training Center, have reported for duty.

Both Privates First Class, Geo. A. Bates, Washington, D. C., and Gilbert A. Broome, Newton, N. C., met a little over a year ago when Private Broome reported to the Aberdeen, Md. Ordnance Training Center in January, 1942, and found Private Bates who had then been in the service three months.

The two now are enrolled in the Enlisted Men's Specialist School here, Private Bates specializing in small arms, and Private Broome in ammunition.

Before entering the service, Private Bates a graduate of Dillard University, New Orleans, La., was employed by the Agriculture Department. Soil Conservation, for seven years. Private Broome graduated from Alabama State College, Montgomery, Ala., and was a school teacher before induction into the Army.

40 GROUPS BACK RACE ISSUES

NEW YORK, N. Y.—The plans for the Eastern Seaboard Conference on the Problems of the War and the Negro People, to be held in New York City, April 10 and 11, are taking final shape and promise in addition to the Conference deliberations, a gala cultural affair and an epoch-making mass meeting.

The program of the Conference will be based primarily upon the four vital issues confronting the Negro people:

- * Full Use of Manpower
- * Democratic Rights
- * War Time Living Standards
- * A People's Victory—A People's Peace

Endorsements of the Conference have been received from over two hundred Eastern Seaboard leaders, and from forty organizations representing a wide cross section of social, religious, labor, civic and fraternal interests from Massachusetts to Virginia. Included in the list are a number of outstanding trade unions, both CIO and A. F. of L.; The Industrial Union Councils of Greater New York, Hartford, Connecticut; Washington, D. C., and Tidewater, Virginia. Among the American Federation of Labor Unions which have voted support of the Conference are: The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local 2090; The Excavators and Building Laborers Union, Local 731; The Howard University Teachers' Union, and the Virginia Peninsula Teachers' Union.

Several outstanding international unions have also given their support to the Conference. Among them are: District 4 of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America; the United Federal Workers of America, New York District Council; the Transport Workers Union; the Industrial Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America; the Joint Board Fur Dressers and Dyers Unions; and the Cleaners and Dyers Union of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

WMC GETTING WOMEN IN WAR PLANTS

WASHINGTON, April 2. (ANP)—War Manpower Commissioner Paul W. McNutt disclosed last week that the program of placing Negro women into defense plants is making headway. "We have had our troubles and our successes," he declared, "and we have worked at it hard." No figures were available to point up this progress.

S. M.—I have been married two years and I really love my husband, but he doesn't act like he loves me. He never kisses me any more or shows much desire for me. Will we raise a family? I want children so bad. Oh yes, he is 18 years older than me.

Ans.—Uh huh—and they were evidently the best 18 years of his life. It's amazing how fast these old timers slow down after they catch a cute little wife. You must be patient with him, feed him good and let nature take its course.

M. S.—I love for you to tell me if you can whether someone has given me something to try to poison me in any way. My face is all blottered up now, also my arms and legs. Tell me how to get over this trouble?

Ans.—You must see a doctor... your case requires medical attention and it is folly to resort to home remedies in a condition such as yours. Forget about being poisoned and get yourself under the care of a medical doctor immediately.

B. L.—With a great pleasure and a grateful heart I wish to thank you for your sweet answers to my questions in your letter I received this week. This boy I love is a motherless child, also he tries to praise God in the highest all the time he prays. In the last letter he wrote he asked me why did my husband beat me up and I told him he snatched a letter out of my hand I was writing to him and when I told him that, he stopped writing.

Ans.—The boy isn't sure of you. You appeal to him, but yet he doesn't like the idea of accepting another man's custody. He wants definite proof of your love and faithfulness to him... can you give it to him?

C. A. M.—I am a heartbroken mother asking your advice... Please, my child is going with a man and tells me she doesn't go with him any more. Tell me is she telling me the truth and tell me what's best to do. Pray for me. I am heartbroken.

Ans.—What you must do mother, is to bear in mind that your daughter lives in a slightly different world than you do. She is more modern, more worldly-wise than you are. In trying to live a good Christian life yourself, you have lost sight of the fact that your child was being tempted on all sides. Your child looks upon you as old fashioned. She will have more respect for your advice and your opinions if you will modernize yourself a little. Go to the movies with her. Pay more attention to your looks. Show her that one can still be abreast with the times and still live a decent normal life.

F. M.—I am in love with a boy. I am a year older than he. He swears that he loves me. When ever he goes off anywhere and comes back he asks questions? loves me ore to get what I can love me or to get what I can give him?

Ans.—A little of both. You know yourself when he is at home... you are the only girl for him. This certainly proves that he loves you... a little bit. And of course... you wouldn't want him yourself if he didn't enjoy a little of the loving you dish out.

C. L. P.—I was going with a girl for quite a long time and we got along swell. I know she really loved me when we were together, but another girl called her up and threw slandering remarks to her and also threatened her if she caught her with me again. I know of no such person who would do anything of that sort for she was the only girl I had dealings with.

Ans.—If she won't listen to reason... there isn't much you can do. She couldn't have been very much in love with you if she would let a gag like that break up your friendship. Some girls think up just such gags to get shed of "suitors" who don't come up to their expectations. Think this angle over, my friend.

The Song of the Plane Hums DEATH TO THE AXIS!

HOUSEKEEPERS Help Win The War In Your Own Kitchen

"FIGHT THE AXIS"

The salvage of waste kitchen fats has become a number one "War Time duty on the home front." The reason is very plain. Kitchen waste fats contain glycerine, glycerine makes gunpowder, explosives, medicinals and is used in many other munitions. A major source of glycerine producing oils has been cut off to the allied nations, when the Japanese seized many of the islands producing coconut and palm oils.

The American housekeepers can make a tremen- dous contribution to the added requirements for glycerine by salvaging waste kitchen fats and greases. The fat salvage collections from the households of the U. S. are now amounting to 90 million pounds per year. Over 70 million pounds are collected from the Armed Forces in the continental U. S. with the naval contribution. But the demands upon the American housekeepers this year run to 200 million pounds. Glycerine enters into the double base powder used exclusively by our allies, England and Russia in carrying the fight to our common enemies. THE U. S. USES DOUBLE BASE POWDER IN SPECIAL ARMS, ANTI-AIRCRAFT, ANTI-TANK, AIRPLANE CANNON SHELLS, TRENCH MORTARS AND CER- TAIN TYPES OF NAVAL GUNS. The nation's housekeepers can carry on the fight in their own kitchens and help win the war at home.

SAVE WASTE KITCHEN FATS!

Fight Odds Fickle As Beau Meets Hank

Atterbury Pugs Best In 4 Camps

(35th Combat Team Photo)

CAMP ATTERBURY, Indiana, March 2.—The 92nd Division staged its boxing tournament in Camp Atterbury's Sports Arena on March 20 and 21 with mitsubishi from four camps competing. Atterbury won the crown, taking five out of eight individual titles against entries from Ft. McClellan, Ala.; Camp Breckinridge, Ky.; and Camp

Robinson, Ark.

BASKETBALL.—OVERLOOKED FINE OPPORTUNITY

NEW YORK. (ANP)—Between innings in taverns and night clubs from Hell's Kitchen to upper Harlem, white and colored basketball lovers are somewhat at sea over Ned Irish's business ability. Ned Irish, as a great many of my readers know, is major-domo of the sports program carried on by New York's famous Madison Square Garden. The 500 millionaires who maintain much more than a rooting interest in the vast sports amphitheatre give Irish, the anti-smiling Irishman, a free reign in the arranging of basketball and other major indoor attractions.

It was Irish who put college basketball on the map in this metropolitan area to the extent that it became common for crowds of 16,000 upwards to sit in on night attractions. Statistics reveal the fact that this season's books will show that more than 400,000 fans paid admissions to the garden this year just to see college basketball teams in action. Hundreds of smart fans are wondering why Ned Irish couldn't see that by blocking Negro college teams his attendance mark might easily have doubled.

In the waning days of the '43 court season, a Negro player representing Toledo university has covered himself with no little glory. We've seen entire sections of white fans rise as one to literally tear the building apart as they cheered the brainy and skillful play of Toledo's Davage Minor. They seemed to lose sight of the fact that he was not white-skinned as were his teammates, through the sheer brilliance of his play. The garden sports impresario turned a deaf ear to my plea to admit Negro college teams into his booking consideration this year, but we're not licked nor discouraged.

This is an awakened America. A united nation in which we have become (not entirely) recognized to fact that our American way of life must beat out the sort of sympathy which spells fairplay for all Americans regardless of the color of their skin. Beginning

GOLFING STAR VISITS HERE

Mrs. Lucy Williams Micham, former national women's golf champion was honored last week with a surprise visit from one of the country's outstanding golf stars. Making his first trip to Indianapolis, Sanders S. Mason top-ranked Negro shotmaker from St. Louis, Mo., invaded the city last week to battle it out in a gruelling duel with leading druggists and wholesalers and while here he found time to call on Mrs. Micham and participate in an informal spring opening at Douglass golf course.

Mason is National sales representative for Nix Cosmetics Co., Memphis and Valmor Products Co., in Chicago. He is on a nation-wide tour calling on druggists everywhere in the interest of the firm's popular cosmetic items. He left Indianapolis Wednesday night for Detroit where he will spend a week before going to New York. He was honor guest at a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Micham last week and he was also entertained by Sea Ferguson, popular local sportsman.

FORMER LOUIS SPARRING PARTNER KILLED IN ACTION

EVANSTON, Ill., April 2. (ANP) Technical Sgt. William Benjamin Snell, former Evanston high school and Tuskegee track star and one-time sparring partner for Joe Louis, has been killed in action on the north African front, his mother, Mrs. Viola Snell, learned Thursday.

Snell served as sparring partner for the champion when the latter trained for his 1939 fight with Bob Pastor. Memorial services for the deceased were held Sunday morning in Ebenezer AME church here.

BUCKEYE ELK NOW TOP KICK

WILLIAMS FIELD, Ariz.—Richard E. Parker of Springfield, O., is first sergeant of a Quartermaster Platoon in an aviation unit, to which rank he has advanced in three months, according to the Williams Field Camp paper, Arizona Contact.

He attended Wilberforce University, Xenia, Ohio, where he took his ROTC training. Following college, he spent two years in the CCC, where he was mess sergeant. He then became sergeant and manager of the Elks Club at Springfield, and was also a professional boxer, winning 23 and losing 8 fights. He is a personal friend of Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, but has never encountered Joe in the ring.

He entered the Army at Fort Thomas, Ky., was transferred to Lake Field, and then to Williams Field. In the Army six months, Sergeant Parker enjoys kidding his father, who was a corporal in the World War, about outranking him.

NAVY ANNOUNCES DEATH OF FORMER MORGAN ATHLETE WASHINGTON, April 2. (ANP)—The Navy department last week announced the death of Alva B. Johnson, petty officer third class and a former well-known athlete at Morgan college, Baltimore, who died from injuries received in action in the Pacific. He was a storekeeper attached to the Seabees, as the construction battalion is known.

Johnson was born in Langhorne, Pa., 33 years ago, graduated from Morgan college and took the post of athletic coach at Storor college. He was still coach there when he enlisted in the service last July.

L. A. COUNCIL CONDEMNS BIAS IN BASEBALL

LOS ANGELES, April 2. (ANP)—Influenced by the appeals of a number of local citizens and aroused greatly last Tuesday's city council meeting, Councilman Carl C. Rasmussen, long recognized as a fighter and torch-bearer for Negroes rights in civic matters, made the following motion which definitely bears the distinction of being a mile post in his distinguished career of service.

"I move that the city council of Los Angeles go on record as expressing its conviction that there should be no distinction, restriction or discrimination against the hiring of baseball players in organized baseball because of race, color or creed."

Rasmussen reasoned with his intently listening audience that in all fields of American sport recognition should be given on the grounds of inherent ability and no other barriers should be allowed to operate against participants.

Supporting his opinion, the councilman cited the record of Kenny Washington, now on the local police force. Several others present as onlookers argued in his behalf, when Councilman Rasmussen concluded his effective reasoning, the city council unanimously approved the motion.

HARRY BOBO AT CAMP LEE

CAMP LEE, Va.—The latest addition to this camp's area of soldier-athletics is gentlemanly Harry Bobo, one of the nations top-ranking heavy weights. Bobo arrived at this post a fortnight ago and has been assigned to Quartermaster Section Two of the 1326th Service Unit.

The 32-year-old six-foot four inch Bobo, who has defeated such ring luminaries as Lee Savold, Len Franklin, and Mello Betnia, in the past four years, and has not fought since January. He hopes to pare his present 224 pounds to his customary 205 and appear in exhibitions before Lee men in the near future.

Bobo will given instructions in QM Section Two in the 1326th Service Unit and will be a referee at the all-star Camp Lee boxing program at the Mosquw in Richmond next Friday night. Appearing with Bobo as a referee will be another of the countries top-notch heavies—Cpl. Billy Conn.

THOMPSON SETS WORLD RECORD IN 45-YARD DASH

CLEVELAND, April 2. (ANP)—Herb Thompson of Jersey City, the season's foremost indoor sprinter, set a new world record in the 45 yard dash at the Knights of Columbus games here Friday night by negotiating the distance in 4.8 seconds. The old standard was 4.9 set by Percy Williams of Canada in 1929.

Harrison Dillard, Baldwin-Walace ace, took the 45 yard low hurdles in 5.1 seconds nosing out Bob Wright of Ohio State. Dillard was second in the 45 yard high hurdles, losing to Wright in 5.6 and finishing ahead of Whitey Hlad, former Michigan State, who holds the world record.

DENIES CHAMP WILL HAVE BOUT

HOLLYWOOD, April 20. (ANP)—Joe Louis will not meet the Argentine champion, Albert Levell, according to announcements by an army officer Friday. Maj. Gen. Irving J. Phillipson, director of the Army Emergency relief, and currently Champion Joe's commanding officer, said that Levell and Louis will not fight May 5.

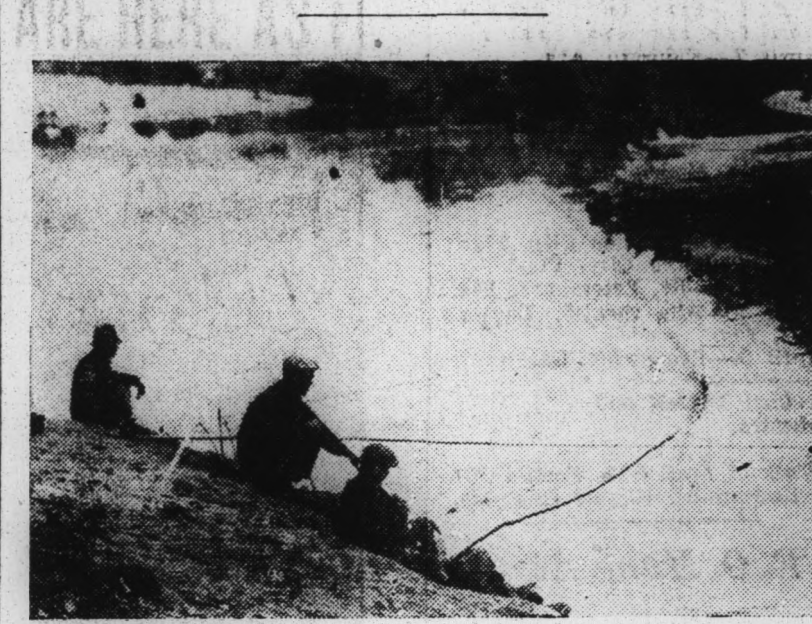

"It is my belief that such an event would be impossible, as I understand it would be contrary to War department policy," he said in reply to Luis Angel Piro's statement in Buenos Aires, Thursday night.

Piro said the fight would be staged in Los Angeles where Louis is starring in the motion picture, "This Is The Army."

BIVINS FIGHTS WATSON JONES IN APRIL

LOS ANGELES, April 2. (ANP)—Jimmy Bivins checked in Saturday from Cleveland to start training for his big match with Watson Jones April 6 at the Olympic. Bivins is fresh from a smashing win over Tami Manriello in the Garden.

'20-POUND BASS FIGHTS 3 DAYS—' YEAH, THAT'S RIGHT BUT STORIES ARE HERE AS FISH SEASON OPENS

Hoosier anglers have the month of April in which to enjoy spring fishing in Indiana lakes and streams before the season closes on April 30th to protect fish during the breeding period, they were reminded by Harrell F. Mosbaugh, director of the Division of Fish and Game, today.

Fishing has taken on a new importance throughout Indiana this year as a result of the rationing of beef and pork. It is anticipated that there will be an increased number of anglers this year, seeking fish to supplement the family menu.

Figures compiled for 1942 show that approximately four million pounds of game fish were taken from Indiana waters that year, with nearly as large a catch of the non-game species such as carp, buffalo, suckers, etc.

Under Indiana laws the open season for the taking of bass, bluegills and other designated game species will end on April 30 to game open on June 16. This closed season does not mean a suspension of activity for the angler as there is no closed season for the taking of non-game species of fish. In addition the open season for taking trout in Indiana begins on May 1 and continues until August 31.

There has been no change in the Indiana law requiring that all persons eighteen years of age and over must have a license to fish in the waters of this state. Only exceptions are the resident landowner and tenant of farmlands who can fish without licenses on such land only. Neither has there been any change in the laws regarding open seasons, bag and possession limits, or prohibiting the sale and purchase of fish and the game species.

City - Wide Recreation

NORTHWESTERN.

Family Night at the Northwestern community center March 26 was very interesting and well attended. To make it a swell evening the adults enjoyed a movie, community singing, song contest, spelling contest, dancing and a baseball game that was made even more interesting by the use of marbles.

If you have never seen a game like that, well, you had better come to the next Family Night, which will be Friday April 30. The Community-spirited persons who made this program a real success were: Miss Maggie Crist, Miss Hudson, Mrs. Minnie, Miss G. Offit, Mrs. E. Head E. C. Taylor and R. Polin. We would also like to thank the Marion County Tuberculosis Association for bringing the splendid all-Negro cast picture, which was made at Tuskegee Institute, titled, "Let My People Live" it was a stirring movie that every person should try to see. Miss Reddish from the Association directed the showing of the picture.

Remember your calendar! The Northwestern Community Center Carnival April 8, 9, and 10. The public is cordially invited, and you will witness a different program each night. The proceeds derived from the Carnival will be used to purchase tools, seeds and prizes for the Community Victory Gardens.

No, there was not any of that pulling of hair and scratching that you would expect when you see the girls tangle in a basketball tournament, but there was plenty of rivalry. When the smoke cleared away Friday, the "All Stars" paced by their "sharpshooters" captain Alma Warren had subdued all entrants in the four-team tournament and emerged the winners of a hotly contested melee, that had been going on for three weeks. Such names as the "Wildcats", "Flashes", "Dare-Devs", and "All Stars", were used by the enthusiastic girls, and they really had a good time. The "Wild Cats" were beaten by the "All Stars" in the finals. The members of the "All Stars" were: Alma Warren, captain; Dorothy Hamlet, Lillie Mitchell, Nannie Hutchins, Mary Henderson, and Maxine Holland.

Post-Season Basketball has been planned by the YMCA and the Northwestern Center. And teams that are interested in participating in this post-season is advised to contact the Athletic Directors of either building.

Being Taken Too Fast; Not Ready for Best

(By Don DeLeighor)

NEW YORK — The New York fight mob descended on Philadelphia last Monday night to get its first look in flock of moons at Henry Armstrong, the only man in boxing to hold three championship ships at one time. What the mob saw was enough to cause the gamblers along Jacobs Beach in Gotham to revise the odds they were offering on Beau Jack of Augusta, Ga., the world lightweight champion, to whip Hammerin' Hank in Friday night's feature ten rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Armstrong was in Philadelphia Monday night to notch his 16th victory in 18 starts at the expense of youthful, competent, game Al Tribunani at Convention Hall. The tuneup fight which drew 12,633 fans and paid off on a total of $32,915.35 saw Armstrong spotting his opponent nine years in age, and nearly eight pounds in weight. Tribunani, a Wilmington, Del., slugger, didn't have a change under that torrent of leather Hank laid on him.

Hank Looked Good!

The former champion, making his first appearance in an eastern ring since he lost his welterweight title to Fritz Zivic in New York two years ago, threw punches almost in the same way he did when he was ruling the roost. And the way he threw them spelled a bad night for Beau Jack for Armstrong brought all the love a seasoned campaigner in the ring can bring to his aid in disposing of Tribunani.

What the mob from New York wanted to find out what whether Armstrong was blind, near-blind or in danger of becoming blind. After watching Hank batter Tribunani and chase him all over the house to do it, not one of us would deny that Armstrong's eyes are as good as they ever were and ever will be; that Armstrong has not slipped, and that, instead, he is the modern miracle man of the ring, a former champion riding into the king's row once more.

Even Money

The odds on the Beau Jack-Armstrong shindig now are 3 to 2 and by ringtime, it is almost certain the betting will be even money, with a possibility that Armstrong may come in as the favorite. The fight will put youth, courage and speed against stamina, experience, a fighting heart; it will put a champion against an ex-champion; a tyro against the master. I figure Armstrong too smart to be knocked out by a youngster like Beau Jack, especially when Beau Jack's style and philosophy of fighting is a strict copy of the former champion.

Beau Jack is learning fast, but the boys on the sidelines shake their heads dubiously and say: "Too fast. They're taking the kid too fast. They should season him, let him whip a lot of boys he can whip before they feed him to the lions." And this attitude persists in spite of Beau Jack's twin conquest of Fritz Zivic who whipped Armstrong twice in title contests. In the case of Zivic it might be said that Zivic was the one fighter among a thousand who could measure up enough to call the get Armstrong's number.

The Zivic who was an in-and-out for years of competition in the squared circle, rose to the occasion when the chips were down and whipped the great Armstrong. A slow, easy target of a Zivic lost two close decision to youthful aggressive Beau Jack yet in the encounter Beau Jack's face and head looked as though they had been in a sausage grinder for a complete hour while Zivic's mug looked as though he had just shaved and powdered up for a fling in the Roseland Ballroom after each contest between he and the Georgia Boy.

Eager for Garden

Armstrong on his background and his recent record, in which he broke Willie Joyce's jaw, knocked out Tippy Larkin and others, should win Friday night, Armstrong (although no one actually knows his financial status) is hungry, possibly not only for money, but for the satisfying thrill that comes from fighting before the most critical and ring wise audience in the world.

It's no good to make a lot of money in places where you can't spend it. Armstrong no doubt figures. You can make a lot of money in New York and you can spend it anywhere you want to. That's why so many fighters are anxious to get into Madison Square Garden. Armstrong has been there before — many times. He helped pay the rent and should know. That's why he figures Beau Jack as an easy hurdle to get back in the top position in Uncle Mike Jacobs' pug menagerie. Right now Armstrong is plotting busily on a sell-out at $16.50 per rindside head contest with Pvt. Walter Smith, better known as Ray (Sugar) Robinson. And that fight, brothers and sisters, will surely come (figuring of course on what Uncle Sam has to say) if Armstrong whips Beau Jack Friday night — something Hammerin' Hank believes already accomplished.

CORP. MC CALL WINS ALL BOUTS IN ENGLAND

LONDON, April 2. (ANP) Fighting is his job. So Cpl. James McCall, U. S. Engineers, was right in his element when he put on his new U. S. uniform.

And since that memorable day he's had plenty of boxing on the side, in addition to the serious business of becoming one of Uncle Sam's fighting men. In Britain six months, Jimmy has met three British boxers and came off first in each encounter.

"Yes, I won, he admitted. No details, just the unvarnished fact. Jimmy was looking over a copy of "Life" in the lounge at the American Red Cross Dutchess club, newly opened service club for Negro enlisted men, on the afternoon before the weekly "Stars and Strips" bouts at American Red Cross Rain-bow corner. He was on the card for that night.

Jimmy is a modest lad, not inclined to discuss his exploits. But for his reticence, he's heavy-weight champ of his outfit and joined the army after two years of life as a professional boxer. Highlight of his pre-war career was his victory over Pompey Robinson at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

"Fighting is the only game for me," Jimmy admitted with the grin. He's been in the ring since he was 17, five years ago.

He thinks the Dutchess club is a swell place, especially because of the excellent food.

"We had turkey for dinner last Sunday," Jimmy said, "and I enjoyed that fine. I hope I can stay at the Dutchess every time I'm in London. It's swell of the Red Cross to have a club like this for us."

Jimmy McCall is the son of Mrs. Vera McCall, 2302 Leona st., Houston. And, to his delight, he found another Houston boy at the Dutchess Pvt. Frank H. Epps. That made his London leave perfect. ABBE WALLACE—GI

SKEGEE PILOTS WIN NET MEET AT TUSKEGEE

TUSKEGEE, April 2. (ANP)—The first Southeastern Servicemen's Baseball tournament came to a breath-taking close Saturday night at Logan hall, Tuskegee institute, when the Tuskegee Army Flying school oled out a thrilling victory over the fast Camp Wheeler five from Macon, Ga., to the tune of 40-35. The game was hard fought throughout, and the score was deadlocked four times during the last half.

When the timer's gun stilled the capacity house, the score was tied at 30-all. During the extra five minute period, the frantic audience went wild. Tuskegee, sensing the chance for victory and the championship, took the situation in hand, and after a hectic five-minute of masterful play emerged victorious as the southeastern servicemen's champion team.

SNOOKUM RUSSEL OPENS NEW SCOTT THEATER RESTAURANT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 30. Arriving in the city fresh from a triumph engagement in Milwaukee's Tam Room, Snookum Russell and his band with vocalist Annie Laura Page opened the new Scott's theater restaurant, most beautiful and most complete theater restaurant for Negroes in America. The opening was one that reminded you of a motion picture premier, musicians, performers and a crowd estimated at 1200 crowded the spacious restaurant and congratulated the manager for his selection of this great band to open such a magnificent spot. The Russell's band engagement is for two weeks with an option.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 30.—The management of Stein's Buffet Bar announced to the Ferguson Bros. Office the popularity of the Gene "Sox" Pope Combo has been so great they have been forced to hang the S. R. O. sign on their door for the last three nights. This is the Pope aggregation's fourth week at the Stein Bar coming direct from Club Rio in Springfield, Illinois.

Famed Funny Fellows At Walker Sun

Jack Benny is trapped in a pincers movement, with Cupid aiming at him from the right through Priscilla Lane, and "meanness" stamping at him from the wrong in the person of Rochester. It's things like this that force Jack to become "The Meanest Man in the World," in the hilariously funny hit opening Sunday with a barrage of laughs at the Walker theater. The 20th Century-Fox comedy features Edmund Gwenn, Anne Revere and Helene Reynolds. The film is based on the uproarious stage hit and was directed by Sidney Lanfield from a screen play by Allan House and George Seaton. William Perlberg produced.

'MEANEST MAN IN THE WORLD' IS YEAR'S BEST COMEDY FILM

Jack Benny and Rochester recently sliced into a big chocolate cake, after blowing out six candles, to observe an important anniversary.

The party, which took place on the set of 20th Century-Fox's "The Meanest Man in the World," the rollicking comedy Sunday at the Walker theater, marked the sixth year of the hilarious collaboration between the nation's foremost comedian and his gravel-voiced heckler.

Present at the unsolemn ceremony were Priscilla Lane, who is costarred in the film; Director Sidney Lanfield and Producer William Perlberg. When Edmund Gwenn, Anne Revere, Helene Reynolds and other cast members called for a speech, Benny responded with:

"Your association has been a happy one because there is give and take in it. Rochester has been a prince of a fellow to me and I've always tried to be more than fair with you, haven't I, Rochester?"

"Yes indeedly, boss," Rochester agreed. "You're like a father to me and I don't mean because, instead of paying me, you just give me an allowance."

ALSO—The story of a man's regeneration, in spite of his unjust treatment at the hands of the law, forms the basis of "Prison Mutiny," the thrilling Monogram prison drama which opens an engagement at the Walker theater on Sunday with Edward Norris, Joan Woodbury and Jack La Rue in featured roles.

Featuring Joan Bennett, Milton Berle and Otto Preminger, the film arriving Thursday at the Walker theater takes you on a hilarious tour through the New York consulate of the Nazis looking for laughs. And, men, it's murder!

The fun begins when the mayor, a man with a sense of humor, assigns Milton Berle to guard the consulate. As a patrolman, Milton would rather throw a gag than twirl a nightstick.

ALSO—"A Man's World", where men ask no questions, women reveal no pasts and spies expect no mercy, is the subject of Columbia's thrilling new melodrama of that name, opening on Thursday at the Walker theater. Featuring William Wright, Marguerite Chapman and Larry Parks, the new film is said to be jammed with excitement as female battles against male in a savage land the law forgot, but which the Nazis remembered!

"Invisible Agent" at the Park Sunday

At The Park Tuesday

ROMANCE IN TAHITI is portrayed by Elena Verdugo and George Sanders in this scene from Somerset Maugham's "The Moon and Sixpence," the Loew-Levin production slated for its premiere

The ghost is walking again on the screen. From Universal studios, long famed for a succession "out of this world" film sensations dating from "Phantom of the Opera" a new fantastic production, "Invisible Agent," comes Sunday to the Park theater.

Players Co-starred.

Iona Massey and Jon Hall are costarred in the film while Peter Lorre, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, J. J. Edward Bromberg and John Littel have featured roles. Albert Basserman and Keye Luke will be seen in prominent supporting parts.

"Invisible Agent" is the latest of a series of unique melodramas beginning with the picturization of H. G. Wells' best seller, "Invisible Man," which was produced several years ago by Universal. In the interim there have been sequels, "Invisible Man Returns," and "Invisible Woman," to perpetuate the extraordinary cycle whose success is lucidly attested to both by box-office returns and flattering editorial and word-of-mouth comment.

ALSO—A grand surprise package of entertainment, as heart-warming as a letter from home, will delight moviegoers here beginning Sunday when "The Postman Didn't Ring," new 20th Century-Fox romantic comedy, arrives at the Park theater.

Sarrring beautiful Brenda Joyce and newcomer Richard Travis, the film purports to tell how a whole town is thrown on its ear by the arrival of a momentous letter—fifty years overdue.

The massive was intended for Richard Travis' father, but was lost with others in a notorious mail robbery before the turn of the century. How the mail sack is recovered and its fateful contents disclosed makes for outstanding entertainment.

THERE ARE SUCH THINGS:

The Twelvemos gave a star-studded formal dance Saturday night at the Walker Casino. It was without doubt a very successful affair. There seemed to be no rationing of men but this was because of the fact that extra men were called from all over the city. Cleo McClendon, Neal Durante, Andrew Sharpe, Porter Jones, and James Denny outshone everybody else and there were good backgrounds for the girl friends who swished and swirled in a bouquet of colors.

Saturday afternoon, I went to the eastside of town, hotbed of crime, to investigate the alleged brutal tactics of a squad of policemen. Onlookers said that the policemen went in and deliberately poured the customers' drinks on the table; then lined them up outside facing the window with their hands raised and then after searching them kicked them down the street. If this is true, it means that we are going back to that stage of Joe Bell's administration. We don't ever want to think that police will ever get the opportunity to practice this sort of thing again.

Policemen never bother me. I have no grudge against them. But when they are wrong they are just as wrong as any one else. A policeman is a vital and necessary evil who can be made good if treated in the right way. Albert Schultz, Fred Simon, George Sneed, Inspector Rouls, Chief Becker, and Herman Radamacher, are examples of Officers who used their heads instead of the hands and fists to enforce the law. If you will check the record you will find that most of the "bad" can hardly read and write. A white man with any ambition would not hardly seek a police job any way. There are too many fields open to him. If Sergeant George Liese stood by and let his men act the way they are supposed to have acted he was just as guilty as they, and should be reduced. The department has reduced Captain Roy Pope two ranks to that of sergeant.

I clamored in this column for weeks that Pope should be reduced. He was. Well, if they can do it to Pope they can do it to Liese. Chief Becker should nip this sort of thing in the bud before it jumps back on him.

My column last week . . . several response via mail this week. They were interesting and gave me a good cross-section view of what the people think about conditions. My object in this column will always be to present the facts as they actually are. The people will then form their own opinions. Two of the letters' contents follow:

TWO LETTERS:

Patrolman Roy E. Kennedy place a unique sticker on the automobile that belongs to patrolman Spurgeon Davenport. On the sticker Kennedy said that Davenport was holding back the war effort by refusing to contribute the 1937 model car to the old scrap heap. Davenport and I both agreed that Kennedy was right but if he complies with this wish neither of us can ride any more.

SOMEONE has misinterpreted the remarks that I made about Marilee Saunders in my column last week. I said that Miss Saunders always acted like she owned Chicago and had an option on New York. It was all in an effort to show that Miss Saunders acted dignified, poised and cultured as she should. I meant it for a compliment and not a criticism. Miss Saunders is very much a lady and that is more than I can say for some of the women who have been teasing her about that statement. They should envy Marilee.

Christine Chatman Heads Swing Quartette

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. April 2.—Following in the footsteps of Ella Fitzgerald and Mary Lou Williams Christine Chatman the newest Ferguson Bros. find, has been signed by the well-known agency to appear with her own Combo, Christine, the former Snookum Russell featured artist is known for her "boogie woogie" style of piano playing and blues singing. The Quartette consists of Christine at the piano, playing and singing, Sol Jenkins, former Clarence Love drummer, Doris Holland trumpet, and Claude Victory tenor sax.

The spectacular desert warfare scenes in Universal's "Arabian Nights" will long be remembered by Jon Hall, who co-stars with Maria Montez and Sabu in the Walter Wanger Technicolor production. During the filming of furious battle sequences in the picture showing at the Indiana theater Sunday, Hall was trampled by horses. The star sustained strained ligaments in both arms and one leg, and spent several days recuperating at his home. Director John Rawlinson rearranged the production schedule and filmed interiors while Hall recovered from his injuries.

AND OLD ARABIAN proverb says: "He who knows not and knows not he knows not; he is a fool—shun him; He who knows not and knows he knows not; He is simple—teach him; He who knows and knows not he knows; he is asleep—wake him; He who knows and knows he knows; he is wise—follow him." I used that ancient Arabian proverb because it coincides perfectly with what I have in mind. We'll skip the first phrase of the proverb, and examine more closely the second and third, which suggests Teaching and Awakening which is all very good, so as to speak, but how are you going to do either, when the subjects will not submit themselves? It has also been said, "That you may LEAD, DRIVE or CARRY fools to knowledge, but you can't make them THINK. Mayors and City controllers, governors of states, presidents and other rulers of nations, even the chiefs of so-called savage tribes, have their respective advisors, and what beats me, is that some persons of a group, which is just seventy-eight years and two months removed from the little red school house in the gulch (for the whites were on the hill) know it all, can't be told anything, and try to stick their fingers into everyone's eyes to

INTERNATIONAL SWEETHEARTS OF RHYTHM MADE ITS BOW AT PRAIRIE VIEW COLLEGE

By R. W. Hilliard

PRAIRIE VIEW, Tex., April 2. (A. N. P.)—The only all-girls orchestra in a Negro college made its bow Saturday March 20, at Prairie View State college which Director Will Bennett, the maker of bands, presented a 17-piece aggregation of beauties who played beautiful music. Since the famous all girls orchestra of Peney, Woods, Miss., withdrew from school to devote all time to playing, on no other girls orchestra has been organized at a Negro college.

According to the 1,500 spectators, the girls were "lovely to look at and pleasing to hear."

The personnel of the band follows: Flores Joan Davis, San Antonio; Marion Bridges, Beaumont; Marcellus Gauthier, Beaumont; L. B. White, Paris; Margaret Grigsby, Houston; Fanie Drisdale, West Point; Margaret Bradshaw, Dennison; Bert Etta Davis, San Antonio; Melvia Wrenn, Galveston; Bernice Payne, Houston; Charlotte Sims, Shreveport, Louisiana; Bettye J. Bradley, Alto; Johnnie M. Dunlap Austin; Elizabeth Johnson, Orange; Doretha Williams, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Argie Mae Edwards, Tyler, and Willie Mary Bailey, Dallas. Flore Jean Davis plays first trumpet, Margaret Grigsby, first trombone, Bert Etta Davis, first saxophone and Doretha Williams is pianist. They will make appearances in Dallas, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Houston soon.

Mr. Bennett states that they will be booked with the regular orchestra for 45 minute periods the next three weeks after which time they will likely take full engagements.

In Memoriam

MATTIE CARPENTER
 CARPENTER—In memory of our darling daughter, Mattie Carpenter who passed away two years ago April 5, 1941.
 We think of her in silence. Her name we often recall. There's nothing left to answer. But her picture on the wall. And her broad smile in that picture.
 That she always had.
 Mr. and Mrs. James E. Carpenter, parents Sisters and Brothers.

CLARK—In loving memory of my husband, William Clark, who passed away, March 31, 1942.
 Sunshine passes, shadows fall. Love's remembrance outlasts all.
 Mrs. Mattie Clark, wife.

MORGAN—In loving remembrance of our dear husband and uncle, Martin Morgan who passed away one year ago, March 29, 1942.

MARTIN MORGAN
 We seem to see in the soft dim light
 A face we loved the best
 And think of him when the sun's
 Just, ray
 Goes down in the far-off west.
 We miss you no less as the time Passes on
 Than we did on the day of your going.
 For absence can never close the door of our hearts
 And the lamp of our love is still glowing.
 Lucille Morgan, wife
 Helen Bradshaw, niece

WOMEN R'ROAD PORTERS
 Negro women will soon don porter's caps on at least one of the country's railroads.
 A railroad representative last week told the conference on "Womanpower in Transportation," sponsored by the Office of Defense Transportation, that Negro women will soon be employed to meet manpower shortages among railroad porters.
 The company is conducting the experiment with some interest and expects to prove, the representative said, that women excel men in creating a homelike atmosphere on trains.

EXPECT PICKENS TO DEFEND
SELF EARLY THIS MONTH

WASHINGTON, April 2. (ANP)—
 Dean William Pickens, of the U.
 S. Treasury now trying to lift the stigma of being a Communist, as charged by Congressman Martin
 Dies of the house committee on Un-American activities, will probably be called early in April to explain away the charges before the special committee set up by the house to shift the latest names mentioned by the Texas "smeared."

A spokesman for the special committee, of which Rep. Joseph Kerr is chairman, said that as soon as this had been done, Dean Pickens would be among the first called.
 The hearing is expected by April 10.

What's The Good Word, Mr.
 Mr. Bluebird!

CAUGHT IN THE BLACKOUT!

Two smart little "curbstone cowboys" kneeling in a game of prayer.
 The warden blew his whistle.
 (not because the guys were disobeying rules of any sort, but because he was naturally curious to know how these two private first-class roughies managed to "carry off" in spite of the city's total blackout.)

—You'll never guess the results!
 They had their instruments of vice especially equipped with illuminated paint. . . . So it appears that in SPITE of dim-outs, . . .
 blackouts, . . . off-air raids, . . . The Game goes on. —Tut Tut.

Here's A Hearty Hello to the "roosters" and a hug 'n kiss to the "chicks" of Naptown, from the roaming romances, . . . Harry Smith and Richard Craig.

They dropped the old newshound a postcard (plastered with unusually large pink and white "beautiful petunias") while breezing through Milwaukee.

Said they'd be seeing us in a deuce of weeks.

I Don't Believe in Rumors:
 But what's this we hear about Sadie Winfrey going all the way to the "Motor City" of Michigan to see if there was any truth to the slogan, . . . "You may see someone you know, if you join the WSO."

A beautiful little Postal clerk, widely known as Ethel Vaughn informs us that Jig-a-lo Pfc. Clarence Trice is now attending Atlanta university, studying to be an A. I. Army clerk. . . . wonder what's going to happen to the ice business now —Ho hum. . . . (we have nothing to spoil anyhow). . . .

Change In Status
 Newswaves from Greenwood,
 Miss., have it that one of Naptown's former prominent citizens have turned from a crook to cook.

My secret ambition: To ride in a jeep!

Worry, Worry!
 Wonder Wonder!
 Pvt. Roy Pope Jr., Jerry Sen-

ter, Wm. Law, James Wallace, Frank Lewis, Richard Morgan, Nathan Williams, John Bosley, Darnell Morris, James Bacon, Kenneth Davis and Sheldon Davis are way way down in New Orleans saging area. . . . (490th Port Bn. (TC) to be exact). . . . And they're just singeing their wings trying to figure out how Naptown manages to "stay on the beam" since they're not here to keep things humming.

Pope says he thinks he'll wait a while, but there are some things about the Army that should be revised and reorganized. . . . (Boys!
 . . . make ready the Guard House!)

Open Market Reports

It has been requested by a sweet little girl named Katherine, that I published Melvin Tinsley's address.

Kathie. . . The newshound doesn't know Melvin's address. . . . but I'm sure that his girlfriend, "Nobie" would be glad to tell you. . . . (who said that!)

Help! Help!!
 Cpl. Sam Smith. . . (Waycross Georgia) wants the addresses of Bill Good, Otis Barnett, and David Bingham.

The newshound knows Otis' address, but Bill and David's have her stumped. . . . Put me in the know, kids. . . . you know my address, 2416 Sheldon st. TA. 9165.

Camera Snapshots!
 A dashing young civilian and a handsome soldier, heading their way down east 24th st., last Sunday nite "round 9:25 trying to meet their dates before the blackout."

A Sight For Sore Eyes:
 Received a communique from John "Bubbie" Kimbrough. . . . (San Francisco, Calif., seaman).
 He has everything under control there. . . . So, don't worry. . . . the water's fine!

Well Baby. . . . I've done my best to please you. . . . now I'm going to leave you. . . . But don't you cry. . . . for next week, I promise to bring a letter addressed to you, the public, bearing George Clasby's signature.
 Bye-Bye.

BUILDING FOR TOMORROW

Vital foods are not only sent to Ethiopia and other members of the United Nations to keep them in fighting trim, but wholesome school lunches and milk are served to millions of American youngsters to help them grow strong bodies to carry on the way of life we are fighting to preserve. These lunches also ease the burden on busy mothers who now have war jobs. This young lady is one of more than a half million colored school children who receive delicious lunches every day. The food is provided by the Food Distribution Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Leaders Wary of "Bias in Unions" Bill

Negotiating a "hand walking bar" on the obstacle course of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command detachment on the University of California at Los Angeles campus is part of the hardening process that Archie Williams, Negro aviation cadet and former track star, must go through during training as a weather officer for the Army Air Forces.

MEASURE NOT MEANT

To Ease Union Stress For Race; Threat Seen

WASHINGTON, April 2. (ANP)—The house military committee may consider, possibly this week, a bill introduced by Representative Howard W. Smith, Virginia Democrat and nemesis of organized labor, which, if adopted, would nullify discriminatory rules and regulations embodied in the constitutions and rituals of trade unions which have the effect of barring Negroes from membership.

Because of the congressman's known views on labor questions in general, a "walk-cautious" attitude is expected to develop among Negro leadership. As it is, the main intent of the bill is not particularly to benefit Negroes, but rather to prevent the enrollment of plant foremen and certain minor supervisory personnel by labor unions.

(John L. Lewis is even now seeking to tie up coal mine foremen into his United Mine Workers of America in the negotiations currently underway in New York. Further, President C. E. Wilson of General Motors Corp., is insisting that the unionization of foremen would interfere with "vital war production and sound labor relations").

While Smith's measure would deny "executive, administrative, professional, or supervisory employees" from membership in any "labor organization engaging in collective bargaining," the congressman admits that it would even go further in bringing about a fuller utilization of manpower. This is also the objective of the Austin-Wadsworth national service act now going thru the congressional mill.

For the duration, the measure would nullify any "rules, practices, policies, or requirements of any labor organization or group of employees, or any provision of any contract, agreement, or understanding to which a labor organization is a party," which: "Prescribes a minimum number of employees on a project; lays down a period of manner of training or apprenticeship as a condition for eligibility of employment; specifies the type of tools or equipment members of such organization could use; requires employment of union men to be present and paid for work performed by non-union employees."

Also, all rules and regulations are declared void which "in any other manner interfere with the full utilization of the Nation's manpower in the present war."

Whereas the specific restraints carried in the Smith bill would make possible the hiring of Negroes who, because of union requirements, have been denied an opportunity even to get apprenticeship training, in order to maintain a tight labor market as some craft unions have done, it is the more general clause of the measure which would defile the ceremonial or ritual restrictions that have been the bane of skilled Negro workers. Perhaps the most notorious union in this connection has been the International Machinists union, which controls a considerable amount of the work in aircraft and shipbuilding industries through closed shop agreements.

No formal comment has yet come from organized labor as to the position it will take on the bill. It is reasonable to predict, however, that it will be opposed. Reports have been recurrent that an element in the Congress for Industrial Organization would bolt and adopt an independent status similar to that of the UMWA. Since Lewis is now attempting to tie up foremen into his union, and since he is also doing what he can to upset the present "little steel wage formula" established by the War Labor Board, observers are saying that he is seeking to restore himself to the leadership of labor by taking the initiative in matters of popular concern to the rank and file.

It is safe to say, however, that if the measure is defeated, argument on it, both in public and in congress, would afford an opportunity to Negro leadership to focus attention on those clauses in union rules and regulations which are denying greater utilization of manpower. Also labor's position would have to be made clear on all points of the measure and not alone on one part of it. That would seem to be the only way of capitalizing on the Smith bill.

COFFEY FLIGHT SCHOOL DONE?

CHICAGO, April 2. (ANP)—The Coffey School of Aeronautics, where many Negroes have been trained this week faces the danger of being closed.

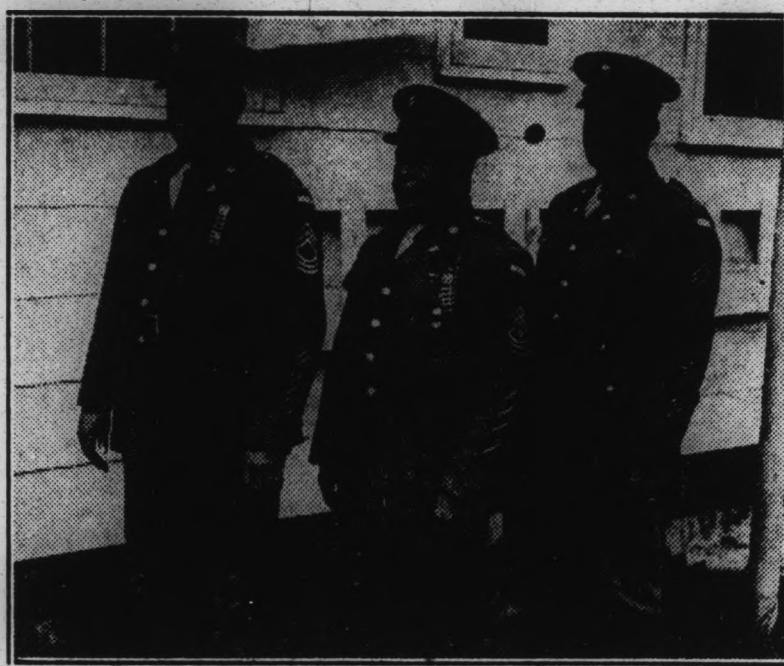

The well-known aviatrix, Willa B. Brown, perhaps the only woman in the United States heading such an institution, went to Washington where she sought in vain to save the pioneer school.

The public grew apprehensive about the school a few weeks ago when CAA announced a new army cadet training program. The Coffey school was not numbered among more than 500 approved schools. However, it was then the optimistic thought that the school would be placed on the approved list as soon as the government supplied other equipment. War authorities claimed that the school was doing far more training than the program required.

R. McLean Stewart and John P. Morris of the CAA claim that the school must be approved by the war department before entrance into the army cadet program. Luther Smith of the war department said, however, that approval is left with Stewart and Morris.

LAWYERS HIT BY OPA CUT?

WASHINGTON, April 2. (ANP)—An unverified statement that the Office of Price Administration plans to drop some of its 2,000 lawyers will probably see some of the Negro attorneys affected or moved up. One of the best known legal lights on the OPA staff is Robert Ming, Howard university professor on leave, Elsie Austin, Delta president, is also on the legal staff of OPA.

FORT BENNING, GEORGIA—Seventy-five years . . . that is the length of service of three sergeants in the Service Battalion of the Infantry Training School. All are veterans of the 24th Infantry Regiment and they have seen service in France, Mexico and the Philippines. They are: Master Sergeant Samuel Sellers, Buffalo, New York; First Sergeant Morris Jackson, Macon, Georgia; and Technical Sergeant George Haywood, Columbus, Georgia.

NAME CHI ATTY. ADVOCATE AIDE

WASHINGTON, D. C. — First Lieutenant L. J. Connor, Jr., of Chicago, Illinois, now assigned to the Judge Advocate General's office, is the first Negro to receive such an appointment. After graduation from school, the University of Chicago and Chicago Law School, Lieutenant Connor practiced law in that city until his induction into the Army at Fort Custer in September, 1942.

He was assigned to the Quartermaster Replacement Training Center at Camp Lee, Va. After his thirteen weeks of basic training, he applied for Officer Candidate School and was awaiting his assignment, when his record came to the attention of the Judge Advocate's office. He was ordered transferred directly to that office in Washington, D. C., and was commissioned a first lieutenant.

MACARTHUR LAUDS TROOPS

With many thousands of Negro combat and service troops stationed in the Far Pacific, American colored soldiers are playing an important part in the Allied offensive now being directed by General Douglas MacArthur in that area.

Arriving with the first units of American soldiers in New Guinea, these Negro troops have not only assisted in maintaining vital supply lines to the various fronts, but have also taken part in the fighting.

According to reports received from Office of War Information outposts, Negro quartermaster and Engineer units helped repulse an attempted Japanese landing at Milne Bay in the early days of the war. Surprised by the landing parties while working on installations in the bay, the Negro soldiers quickly manned machine guns and helped Army combat units repel the invaders. This encounter marked the first American offensive retaliation in the area.

Organized mainly into Engineer Quartermaster and Ordnance units, which helped to build many of the Allied airdromes now playing an important part in the offensive, are composed mainly of men with special skills. Master Sergeants are serving as construction supervisors and structural designers in the Engineer Operations Section, while enlisted men are working as draftsmen, surveyors, architects, photographers and electricians. They are constantly building and maintaining roads, runways and other Engineer projects. At present, Quartermaster and Ordnance outfits are guarding, supplying and supervising ammu-

General MacArthur has lauded these Negro troops on various occasions and several letters from MacArthur's Headquarters attest to their continuing contribution to the Allied offensive in that area.

SAYS INTERRACIAL COOPERATION HEROIC EFFORT IN GRAPPLING WITH CRITICAL RACE TENSIONS

(By Dean Gordon B. Hancock for ANP)

The principle of interracial cooperation is fundamentally sound. Those men and women who launched the movement deserve the gratitude of the Negro race and the nation. They have a heroic effort to meet a critical situation and while their work was not spectacular it was nevertheless necessary as an attempt to adjust interracial matters in lieu of a solution.

Thankless Task
Today there is no more tedious and thankless task than in the interracial area of race relations. Like Christianity, so much was expected of it that when it failed to satisfy the most exacting demands of the situation, it is being denounced and calumnies are being heaped upon the interracialist and his interracialism. The outbreak of anti-religion in Russia during the revolution roughly epitomizes the anti-interracialism that is gaining headway in this country.

Fundamentally the outbreak in Russia was not so much against religion itself as against the religion that was inert and indifferent before the suffering of the Russian peasants. The revolt was against a certain type of religion. What is more, a great service was rendered the cause of religion when the inert and indifferent type of religion was attacked. In their attempt at an all-out purge of religion the Russian masses went to the extreme and denounced all religion. The pendulum is gradually swinging the other way.

Passive Plan
It was even so with interracialism in this country; the great opposition to interracialism is not against the movement per se, but against an interracialism that has been too passive and cautious. We need interracialism today as in the past. It is safe to say we need it even more than in the past, for unless there is a vigorous and sustained movement to bring about an interracial understanding, I am afraid we are headed for some unhappy developments in this area.

We may as well face the fact now as later that the thing the interracialist is doing must be done if we are to be spared great tribulation and needless suffering. But it is becoming increasingly clear that whereas the interracialism of yesterday emphasized the sloveness of these interracial processes; the interracialism of tomorrow must emphasize the possibility of speeding these processes.

Speed Program
I have studied this question seriously for 30 years and I am convinced that interracial matters could be advanced much faster with safety to all concerned. Very often I am thrown into interracial gatherings and our white interracialists in far too many instances emphasize the fact how slowly we must move in these matters. The new interracialism must put more emphasis on the possibilities of accelerating the interracial processes.

In the nature of things there must be something between the two races that are separated by law and are forced into a situation where they must achieve and pursue separately. There must be some common ground upon which whites and Negroes can meet and arrive at a common understanding. But if this common ground is to be productive of its greatest benefits it must assume another point of view. We are not going to get very far by emphasizing what cannot be done and how slowly we must proceed.

Caution Dooms Work
Without the element of adventure in the whole interracial movement it is doomed from the beginning. The dangers of going too slow are quite as real as those of going too fast. Heretofore interracialism has centered its emphasis on the dangers of going too fast; hereafter it must center its emphasis on the dangers of going too slow. Both are real dangers and both need emphasizing, and not one exclusively.

In other words, Negroes must not be made to feel that the white interracialist's main mission is to keep the Negroes quiet and "in line." However the Negro must be convinced that the white interracialist will support him when he speaks up for righteousness and the possible rewards thereof.

Losing Faith
For better or worse Negroes are losing faith in interracialism. This is tragic. There is nothing to prove that we can get along without some form of interracialism in the future even as we could not have gotten along without it in the past. The situation demands interracial cooperation. There is no better way in sight. There is nothing to take its place. Litigation alone will not take us into the Promised Land. Interracialism then we must have it but must be an interracialism with a "possibility complex." Some great advances are also possible!

600 WORKER WALK OUT WHEN 27 NEGROES RECEIVE PROMOTION

CANTON, O., April 2. (ANP)—Protesting the promotion of 27 Negro workers, 600 employees of the Timken Roller Bearing Co. S. Gammas plant staged a walkout last week and tied up operations for a day.

The president of the CIO United Steel Workers Union discouraged members of the union from participating in the walkout, and said those who took part would be expelled from the union. He said the strike was unauthorized.
